Nazi River Port Smashed R.A.F. Spreads Ruin at Duisburg-Ruhrort

LONDON (CP)—Attacking in waves for several hours, British bombers "showed their high explosives and incendiary bombs" at Duisburg-Ruhrort, world's largest river port, in Germany, the Air Ministry announced today.

The Ministry said last night's raid "must inevitably have disorganized essential traffic and destroyed indispensable war materials."

Damage was done to shipping, it said, "and many fires and explosions occurred."

Continue Pounding 'Invasion' Points

In other raids which were regarded by the people as a reply to the enemy's mass raids on the Midlands, British air squadrons last night attacked the "invasion ports" of Lorient, Cherbourg, Dunkerque and Ostend, the communiqué said.

"Several enemy airdromes were bombed," said the communiqué. At Amiens-Grisy, a German aircraft in the act of taking off was set on fire.

FIRST GROUP OF NEW TYPE BOMBERS FOR BRITAIN—Poised at a California airfield, these new type Douglas DB-7A bombers are shown ready to leave for New York, to be delivered to British representatives. Bigger than these are the 46 "flying fortresses" whose

"One of our aircraft has not returned to its base."

It is known that the R.A.F. raiders who bombed the vast Skoda armament works in German-occupied Czechoslovakia early Wednesday morning started fires. One of the British pilots said specifically he had seen flames spread over the factory and heard a subsequent violent explosion.

high command in a communiqué today said:

"On the night of November 20-21, British planes attacked several German airports in western and northern France. No single objective was hit. Similar attacks on several localities in western Germany were without noteworthy success. Merely one foundry, one workshop and gas main were struck. The damage was repaired most quickly by work gangs.

"Two of our own planes are missing."

British Parliament Opens New Session

Churchill Pledges More Aid to Greece

By J. F. SANDERSON

LONDON (CP)—Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax told the House of Lords today that he had "some reason to believe" the British proposals for a trade agreement with Russia would succeed, while in the House of Commons Prime Minister Churchill reiterated Britain's determination to assist the Greeks.

General debate on many aspects of the war began simultaneously in the two Houses of Parliament after the formal opening of a new session by the King.

Victory Assured, Declares King

Not even the vicissitudes of war were permitted to interfere with the ancient opening ceremony, although there was less pageantry than a state opening in time of peace. The whole ceremony lasted 10 minutes and no more than 400 people witnessed it.

The Throne Speech recorded the King's confidence "that victory is assured not only by the prowess of the armed forces of my Empire and those of my Allies, but also by the devotion of the civil defence forces and the tenacity and industry of my peoples." (See text of speech on page 2.)

2 Eastern Fields Must Be Held

The Prime Minister said that in helping the Greeks it was necessary to keep in mind the need of defending Egypt and the Suez Canal against superior numbers of Italian forces. (See text of Mr. Churchill's speech on page 2.)

"We have both these theatres to consider," he told the House. "I can only say that we shall do our best."

On the broad subject of war aims, Mr. Churchill said that many believed that "example is better than precept, that actions speak louder than words."

But one pledge he could make. That was to safeguard parliamentary institutions and keep them vital and active, even under enemy fire, so that the hard-won liberties of the British people, voluntarily surrendered for the period of the war, could be restored to them in their fullness "when victory has crowned our exertions and our perseverance."

"Up to the present," Mr. Churchill declared, "this war has been waged between a fully-armed Germany and half-armed empire, but we have not done so badly."

"I look forward with confidence and hope to the time when we ourselves shall be as well armed as our antagonists, and beyond that to the time when the arsenals, training grounds and science of the British Empire shall give us that material superiority which, added to loyalty and constant hearts, will bring victory and deliverance to all mankind."

Brave Greeks Clear Their Soil

Mr. Churchill said the valiant and sudden uprising "of the Greeks had already almost purged" their soil of an attack which he described as pure and unmitigated brigandage.

The Prime Minister expressed hope that Britain would be able to give from her resources, "always heavily strained," a "helpful measure of assistance to the Greeks" and that "we shall be able to discharge our responsibility to Egypt in defending its soil and guarding the vital artery of the Suez Canal."

"Even if the whole of the homes all over the country are levelled," Mr. Churchill said, "we shall still be found all standing together and we shall build them up again after the fighting is over."

He urged the House of Commons not to lose sight of its democratic duty of "giving guidance to the nation and, if necessary, correction to the executive."

Give-and-take With Russia

In his speech in the upper chamber, Lord Halifax said proposals have been made for "a compromise settlement arising out of Soviet annexations of territory" with regard to British obligations. Friction had arisen out of Russia's absorption of the three Baltic states last summer. Other proposals "of a general character" have been made, he added, "to establish greater confidence between the two governments in the political sphere."

Hitler, the Foreign Secretary declared, is pursuing "his usual policy" of "combined cajolery and brutality" with France.

The War Today

By GUY RHOADES

ON ADVANCE

Now blows on Germany may be expected soon from 46 huge bombing aircraft turned over to Britain by the United States in the current 50-50 apportionment of war supplies manufactured in the American republic.

These machines, biggest military planes aloft, carry a "useful load"—as aeronautical engineers term it—of five tons, fly with four engines for 3,000 miles, enough to bomb anything in Axis territory from England and return.

WILL REPAY

These great sky-riders will help repay Germany for raids on Britain's Midlands population.

Just as the "middle classes" have been called the spiritual "backbone of Britain," so could the Midlands be called the manufacturing backbone. The Nazis, in striking at the Midlands, had a sound idea of destroying industry, but they seemed largely to have missed their presumed objective and killed civilians and smashed cherished buildings.

AID FROM LONDON

Most Britons were resigned to what they regarded as inevitable attacks on London and the killing of women and children there. They did not seem so resigned to bombing of outlying sections. London, whacked and bruised day after day for weeks, still had a thought for its fellows in Coventry when the blow fell there and London's Lord Mayor was able to send money to help those people who had been bruised for the first time.

Italian Army Retreats, Greeks Enter Koritza

BITOLJ, Yugoslavia (AP)—Advance units of the Greek army began entering Koritza, Italy's strategic base in southern Albania, after a hard day's fighting with the Italian rearguard, according to unofficial reports from the Albanian frontier to night.

Large detachments of Greeks were said to be following the advance units to complete the occupation of the city.

The Italians were retiring in two directions along roads to El Basani, north of Koritza, and to Pogradetz, the report said.

From Yugoslav soil, observers reported seeing an Italian column 12 miles long, mostly of motorized units, carrying out the retreat to Pogradetz.

Despite strong Italian resistance, the Greek drive was continuing ready to continue past Koritza without delay.

Artillery fire heard on the border has been unceasing day and night.

Greek planes, meanwhile, have bombed the Italian airdrome at Argirocastro in Albania, while Italian aircraft have attacked several towns in Epirus, western Macedonia, Greece.

Final Bulletins

British Chase Nazis' Orinoco?

NEW YORK (AP)—Mackay Radio said the German motor ship Orinoco sent out an SOS at 4:57 p.m., E.S.T., by short wave radio.

3rd War Loan

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Isley told the Commons this afternoon the third war loan would be floated next summer.

The campaign would be of the co-operative type employed in the victory loans of the last war, rather than relying solely on the professional assistance of investment dealers.

Canadians would have to restrict individual expenditures, he said.

Tens of thousands of people might have to be shifted from agriculture and trade into war production.

Midlands Night Raid

LONDON (CP)—The Axis air force smashed heavily tonight at the Midlands factory area for the third straight night, and struck as well at a port of western Britain. At least two towns in the Midlands were under attack.

Here in London, the raiders loosed the customary assault by flying in singly. Wherever they were heard in the thick darkness a mighty barrage went up and apparently turned them aside. There were no early reports of bomb damage here.

108 Italians Killed

LONDON (CP)—The British command in Egypt announced tonight that 108 "enemy" troops were killed in an engagement in the western desert Tuesday at "small cost" to the British forces.

Agents Foiled

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Chairman Dies of the Congressional committee investigating un-American activities, said this afternoon he believed the "effectiveness of Nazi activity in the United States would be destroyed" as the result of the committee's special report released today in Washington.

Dies said it would focus the spotlight of publicity on various organizations and leaders engaged in un-American activities, thereby rendering valueless their existence in the country.

Vulcania Sunk?

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Reports from Dubrovnik (Ragusa), on Yugoslavia's Adriatic coast, tonight said the bodies of three Italian seamen wearing lifebelts marked Vulcania had been washed ashore near Dubrovnik.

There have been no reports, however, of any mishap to the 24,400-ton Italian liner Vulcania, which has been lying at a home port.

See Bonfire, Men

ST. HUBERT, Que. (CP)—A United States army bomber flying over the East Lake, Que., area where four Royal Canadian Air Force fliers are missing, sighted a bonfire with three men standing beside it, according to an intercepted wireless report, it was stated here this afternoon.

Operators did not hear the complete message and it was not known if the American fliers had identified the men as some of the missing fliers.

Plane Crash Kills Instructor, Student

MOOSE JAW (CP)—A veteran pilot and his pupil were killed when a training plane crashed in a farm field two miles northwest of here today.

The victims were pilot Jack Scott, 28, and his pupil, Frank Maguire, 24, who was taking instructions preparatory to enlistment in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The light training plane crashed with terrific force in the rough field, turning over several times. Wreckage was thrown across the field, but the men were trapped in the cabin, where the bodies were found by farmer eye-witnesses of the crash.

The widows of both men live in Moose Jaw. Scott, a member of the Moose Jaw Flying Club, had taken over the training of Royal Canadian Air Force recruits recently.

Maguire's father, William Maguire, is mechanical superintendent of the Moose Jaw Times-Herald.

After serving his apprenticeship in Moose Jaw, young Maguire worked on the Daily Star at Windsor, Ont., in the composing room. He returned to Moose Jaw about a year ago.

'Buy Something British' Portland Mayor Urges

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Portland's mayor, urging support of Great Britain in the European war, has proclaimed "Buy Something British" week.

The proclamation says: "The courageous British depend on supplies which they purchase in the United States. In order that Britain may have dollar exchange to purchase American supplies it is necessary that we reciprocate by buying some things which Britain is able to sell."

CBC Head Silent On Transradio

OTTAWA (CP)—Gladstone Murray, general manager of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, received without comment today news of a report from Washington that the Dies Committee investigating un-American activities had issued a white paper linking the Transradio Press Service with operations of Transocean News Service, which was alleged to be engaged in distributing German propaganda. (See story on page 2.)

"I have no comment," he said, adding it was a matter for radio censors.

Transradio Press Service operates in Canada, and, like other news services, is subject to wartime censorship. Radio news censorship officials said there had been no complaint in Canada about news releases from the Transradio Press Service.

200 Trucks Daily Over Burma Road

LASHIO, Burma (AP)—A stream of military, medical and industrial essentials is rolling along the Burma road into China at the rate of 12,000 tons a month, despite Japanese aerial bombing and strafing.

Almost daily at least 200 trucks leave the Lashio depots of seven different transport organizations in convoys.

China also is striving to reorganize its export—virtually halted after Japanese entry into the northern part of French Indo-China—and reroute trade to the Burma road. Nearly a third of the trucks which formerly returned empty from Kuming now are bringing pay loads to this railhead—wood, oil, bristles, hides, silk and some tungsten.

Antonescu in Reich

BERLIN (AP)—Gen. Ion Antonescu, Premier of Rumania, arrived in Germany today, bringing his country to the fore as the possible next recruit for the expanding Axis alliance.

Accompanied by his foreign minister, Prince Costin Sturza, and the German minister to Rumania, Wilhelm Fabricius, the Rumanian Premier was greeted at the Austrian border town of Bruck by the German chief of Protocol, Baron Alexander von Doernberg, and other Reich officials.

Heads War Board

H. R. MacMILLAN
Vancouver industrialist and timber controller, will direct operations of the new wartime requirements board, it was announced yesterday at Ottawa. Chief duty of the board will be to instill drive and cohesion in all phases of Canada's war effort. It will give war needs priority over all other needs.

Duce Fires 50 Officers

LONDON (CP)—Fifty senior officers of the Italian army in Albania were removed after Mussolini's campaign against the Greeks bogged down. It was learned reliably this evening. These changes were in addition to the shake-up which sent Gen.

Ubaldo Soddu to take command of the Duce's army.

The sources believed the Greek campaign was planned by Italian politicians instead of by the military and that these men were made scapegoats for the failure. It is thought their return to Italy may create friction.

Predict Bulgaria Claims on Greece

BUCHAREST (AP)—Rumanian dispatches from Sofia predicted today that Bulgaria will alter her "attitude of defensive neutrality" soon and present Greece with a note setting forth Bulgarian claims on that country.

German sources here asserted that Bulgaria might be the next, following Hungary's example, to join the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo alliance.

(Balkan rumors have it that Bulgaria, at Germany's bidding, may demand access to the Aegean through Greece.)

Soldiers Buy Plane

LONDON (CP)—On behalf of the Canadian 1st Division R.S.M. R. L. Dale of Red Deer, Alta., and Private P. A. Tremblay of Verdun, Que., today presented Lord Beaverbrook, Minister of Aircraft Production, with a cheque for £5,029 ($22,379) raised by the divisional Spitfire fund to buy the Royal Air Force a fighter.

Lord Beaverbrook said the public will be "delighted and pleased beyond measure by this contribution." The division is believed to be the first military formation in the Empire to raise funds for the purchase of an airplane for the R.A.F. Many of the men of the division gave a day's pay or more to the fund.

SCATTERED RAIDS DURING DAYLIGHT

LONDON (CP)—London's sirens sounded two daylight alerts in quick succession today shortly after raiders were reported over scattered towns in England.

The raiders defied a gale over the Channel to make their daylight stabs at Britain, and as they came over a heavy cross-Channel gun duel raged below them.

No casualties or damage were reported from the cannonading which continued about an hour, apparently at random, since the visibility over the Strait, barely a mile, was the worst in several days.

The first two daylight raids on London were of short duration. In the London area a high explosive bomb killed a family of four, the parents and two daughters.

In a swift-running machine gun fight, a Spitfire overhauled and rammed a German Heinkel bomber today, causing both planes to crash and killing the four men in the bomber and the Spitfire's pilot. A fireman also was killed by a bomb exploded by fire in the bomber's wreckage.

The fight occurred between Sittingbourne and Faversham in Kent.

Parachutes Clue In Wide Search

OTTAWA (CP)—Sighting of two parachutes in the heavily wooded area near East Lake, Que., where search is being conducted for four missing airmen, was announced early this afternoon by the Air Ministry.

The ministry said the two airmen who presumably parachuted to earth from the plane late Saturday night or early Sunday were not to be seen.

"This (the sighting of the parachutes) is regarded as a most important clue and narrows down the search accordingly," said the ministry.

The parachutes were sighted by the crew of a R.C.A.F. twin-engine flying boat engaged in the search for the lost airmen.

Today's statement was the most encouraging word since yesterday's announcement that one of the crew who had been missing since the plane was abandoned had been sighted.

He was not identified, but emergency rations were dropped to him and ground parties went into the bush to bring him out.

B.C. MAN THERE

Listed as missing by the Air Ministry are: Flt. Lt. G. F. Clay of New Westminster, B.C.; P.O. J. G. Richardson of Saskatoon; L.A.C. H. E. Howard of Aylesford, N.S.; L.A.C. E. J. Benoit of Ottawa, and A. C. Elmer Johnson of Winnipeg.

Meantime, as the R.C.A.F. pressed its own search of the rugged woodlands around East Lake, about 100 miles northeast of Quebec City, United States bombing planes scoured the American side of the border in the area, searching for the men.

An Air Ministry spokesman said that to his knowledge this was the first time U.S. planes had come to Canada to engage in such operations.

They were based at St. Hubert airport near Montreal, nearest airport to the search area that can accommodate planes the size of the American bombers.

"It may be said to typify the good neighbor relations of Canada and the United States," an official said.

Floods Kill 50

KINGSTON, Jamaica (CP)—Toll of floods that followed a cloudburst last Monday night in northeastern Jamaica has been set at 50 known dead, and is expected to mount as high as 80, newspapermen returning from the stricken area said today. More than a score of persons still are missing.

Approximately 100 of the weekly-constructed homes were smashed by the force of the surging waters from flooded rivers and streams.

Churchill Speaks

Only Half Strength of Empire Used as Yet

LONDON (CP)—The text, in part, of Prime Minister Churchill's speech in the House of Commons today follows:

"The House will forgive me if I do not attempt today to deal with the war situation. I do not feel that this is the moment when it would be convenient to make a statement on the war in the Mediterranean theatre.

"There are two wars going on there, in both of which we have the very greatest interest. There is the defence of Egypt and the Canal against greatly superior numbers of the enemy. This defence some months ago looked a rather difficult and doubtful affair, but at the present time we have confidence that we shall be able to give a good account of ourselves when the invading forces fall upon us.

Then there is the valiant and sudden uprising of the Greek nation who, though taken by surprise and struck a violent blow, have already almost entirely purged their soil of the conscript invaders who have been launched upon them upon an enterprise which cannot be described as other than pure and unmitigated brigandage.

Deeds Expected Of Armed Forces

We have both these theatres to consider, and I can only say that we shall do our best. I feel that deeds and not words are what are expected of us, and I certainly hope that we shall be able to give from our resources, which are always heavily strained, a helpful measure of assistance to the Greeks, and that we shall be able to discharge our responsibility to Egypt in defending its soil and guarding the vital artery of the Suez Canal.

Payment for Losses Of Property

The war damage bill has perhaps lagged somewhat behind our hopes in its preparation. It is a bill of great complexity and difficulty, but I can assure the House that every effort will be made to bring it before Parliament at the earliest moment, and it will be a measure of amplitude and scope which will deal effectively with the damage which falls now here, now there, upon individuals throughout the country. There must be equality of risk and equality of treatment in respect of damage done by the fire of the enemy.

"I do feel that because one man's home is smashed, that should be no special misfortune to him, and that all whose homes are not broken up should stand in with him, as the trouble may last, and even if the whole of the homes of the country are levelled, then we should all be found standing together to build them up again when the fighting is over.

"Then there is also the means test bill. This measure does attend to a very large extent to a question which has been the subject of controversy between the parties, but I think it would undoubtedly take a step forward into those regions of social justice which are mentioned in the gracious Speech from the Throne.

"The time-honored ceremonial and procedure in which the Crown and Parliament played parts to day carry with them to anxious minds the balm of confidence and certainty.

"When our beloved Sovereign and Queen come from their battered palace to this building which is not without evidence of the strokes of war; when the Sovereign comes to open Parliament in person and calls his faithful Commons to discharge their duties, we touch at every step, in every measure, in every for mality, in every resolution we pass, we touch customs and traditions which go back far beyond the parliamentary conflicts of the 17th century.

"We feel the inspiration of the old days and feel, too, the splendour of our political and moral inheritance.

"We are frequently asked to make a declaration about our war aims. Some may think example better than precept and that actions speak louder than words.

Mean to Keep Institutions Alive

"Today, inaugurating this new session of Parliament, we proclaim the faith and sincerity of our resolve to keep vital and active, even in the midst of our struggle for life, even under fire of the enemy, those parliamentary institutions which have served us so well and which the wisdom and civic virtue of our forebears shaped and founded, and which have proved themselves the most flexible instruments for securing, amid unceasing change and progress, that while they throw open the portals of the future they carry forward also the traditions and glories of the past which, in this solemn moment of world history, are at once our proudest assertion of British freedom and the expression of unconquerable national will.

The government enters upon the new session with the general good will of the House. Immense surrenders of our hard-won liberties have been made by the British people in order in time of war to serve better the cause of freedom and fair play for which they will keep nothing back. Parliament stands the custodian of those ancient liberties and its most sacred duty will be to restore them in their fullness when victory has crowned our exertions and perseverance.

Shine Brightest Under Tests

We have a long road to go, and I have never concealed from the nation or the House the darker side of our dangers and burdens, but it is in adversity that British qualities shine brightest. It is under these extraordinary tests that the character of our slowly-wrought institutions reveals its latent, invincible strength.

Up to the present this war has been waged between fully-armed Germany and half-armed or quarter-armed British Empire. We have not done so badly.

I look forward with confidence and hope to the time when we ourselves shall be as well armed as our antagonists and, beyond that, to the time when armaments, training grounds and science of the British Empire shall give us that material superiority which, added to loyalty and constant hearts, will bring victory and deliverance to all mankind.

Throne Speech

LONDON (CP)—The text of the Speech from the Throne, read by the King at the opening of Parliament today, follows:

My Lords and members of the House of Commons:

My peoples and my Allies are united in their resolve to continue the fight against the aggressor nations until freedom is made secure. Then only can nations, released from oppression and violence, again work together on the basis of ordered liberty and social justice.

I am confident that victory is assured, not only by the prowess of the armed forces of my Empire and those of my Allies, but also by the devotion of the civil defence forces and the tenacity and industry of my peoples. These are now enduring, where they live and labor, the perils as well as the hardships of war.

The staunchness of the men of the merchant and fishing fleets has added lustre to the ancient traditions of the sea.

SUPPLIES FROM U.S.

The resistance of my people has won the admiration of other friendly powers. Relations of my government with that of the United States of America could not be more cordial, and I learn, with utmost satisfaction, of the ever-increasing volume of munitions of war which are arriving from that country.

It is good to know that in these fateful times how widely shared are the ideals of ordered freedom, of justice and security.

Members of the House of Commons:

You will be asked to make further financial provision for the conduct of the war.

My Lords and members of the House of Commons:

500-page White Paper On U.S. Inquiry

Dies Traces Nazi Propaganda in Americas

WASHINGTON (CP)—Transradio Press Service was described today in a white paper published by the Dies committee on un-American Activities as apparently the receiving and transmitting agency in the United States for Transocean News Service, Nazi propaganda agency.

The report said Transocean financial records showed that between January 1, 1939, and August, 1940, Transradio Press received $44,387.91 from Transocean, whose job was the distribution of Nazi news to Canada, the United States, Mexico, Central America and South America.

(The Transradio Press service serves a number of Canadian radio stations, by short wave from the United States, with news for broadcasting.)

The committee said it had "documentary evidence to the effect that Transocean News Service has been the chief propagandizing agent of the Nazi government in Guatemala, Mexico, Havana, Ecuador, Argentina and Brazil." From Berlin, it said, about 10,000 words of "information and messages" are transmitted daily.

Material Declared Violently Anti-U.S.

"The evidence indicates that the material sent from Germany to the South American countries is violently anti-American, and that Transocean News gives free distribution of its material to the newspapers in South America," said the white paper.

The white paper included correspondence which the committee said was exchanged by Manfred Zapp, named as Transocean representative in the United States, and Transradio Press. It dealt with the reception of short wave broadcasts of transocean news in South America.

Faulty Reception; Transradio Called On

"In the event that the South American reception was faulty," the report said, "Berlin immediately advised Zapp in New York. Thereupon Zapp took this matter up with the Transradio Press Service, which service appears to be not only the receiving agency for Transocean but also the transmitting agency."

"The certificate of incorporation of the Transradio Press Service Inc., filed with the State of New York, bears the name of Arthur M. Quisenberry as a member of the board of directors of the said corporation. The list of employees of Transocean News Service, as contained in the file of this organization, indicates that an employee, Arthur Quisenberry, was entered on the rolls as of April 12, 1939."

The report included a letter to the German embassy in Washington concerning attempts to disseminate the Transocean News Service.

Italians Leave Tanks and Arms In Fast Retreat

ATHENS (AP)—Information from the front today said the Greeks were within six miles of Argirocastro, which is said to rank equally with Koritza in strategic value.

It was on these two towns that the Italians had based their drive into Greece. Stores of war materials had been assembled in both places.

A thrust through the centre of the Italian lines, putting the Fascist forces to hasty flight at a point six miles within Albania, was the previous high spot of Greek successes reported today all along the 100-mile front from the Ionian Sea to Koritza.

Observers in the Koritza sector reported the Italians were abandoning the city and all outgoing roads were under fire from Greek artillery and that Greek troops were in the outskirts.

OUT OF SIGHT

Pilots flying over the coastal sector reported the Italians were retreating in such haste that none were sighted immediately in the path of the advancing Greeks.

A Greek government spokesman said the central breakthrough was achieved at Meritani, Albania, west of the Aous River and northwest of Koritza, Greece.

Leaving munitions, arms, tanks, automobiles and lagged troops behind, the Italians are retreating so rapidly that the bayonet-brandishing Greeks are hard put to keep up with them.

The Greek high command listed 200 automobiles among the booty captured. The Athens radio predicted a decisive phase of the war was imminent.

ON FRAYS

In the north, the Greek command also announced, its hardy mountaineer soldiers had won the summits of the Morava Range northeast of Koritza and were pressing down the western slopes on that besieged Italian base.

On the southernmost front, near the sea, the only place where the Italian invaders remain on Greek

Zapp Sent To Increase Scope

Dated October 19, 1939, the letter was over the name of Zapp, whom the committee said was "sent to this country from Berlin for the express purpose of increasing the scope of Transocean News Service's effectiveness, not only in the United States but in Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America."

The report said the service was developed during the first Great War and later made by Hitler into a propaganda agency.

The letter was addressed by the counsellor of the legation, Herbert von Stempel, German Embassy, Washington, and said: "At your suggestion we have sent Transocean News for one month to the Cleveland News, Press and Plain Dealer."

"After the dispatch of trial copies the representative of the Cleveland Press came here to New York and inquired after our service and discussed it and showed himself willing possibly soil, successful progress was reported without details.

British Royal Air Force planes which are aiding the Greeks reported that they alone had shot down 11 Italian planes in 24 hours.

ITALIAN CLAIMS

ROME (AP)—The Italian high command in a communique today said:

"On the Greek front, particularly in the Koritza sector, repeated enemy attacks smashed themselves against the firm resistance of our troops.

"Our air force bombed an enemy base at Preveza, military objectives in the Trikkala and Koritza zones. Four of our planes failed to return."

C.I.O. Condemns Foreign 'isms'

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The Congress of Industrial Organization adopted today a resolution condemning "the dictatorships and totalitarianism of Nazism, Communism and Fascism as inimical to the welfare of labor and destructive of our form of government."

The resolution, however, did not contain any reference to the proposal of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers to bar Communists, Nazis and Fascists from C.I.O. offices.

Thomas Kennedy, as chairman of the resolutions committee, moved for its adoption as "a plain, simple reaffirmation of the policies of the C.I.O. and John L. Lewis."

"It is not conceived in red-baiting, hysteria or witch-hunting," he said.

An overwhelming majority stood up for passage of the resolution after the convention first had voted against throwing the controversial issue open to debate.

Death Threat

LEYDEN, the Netherlands (Via Berlin-AP)—Because a pot-shot was taken at a German sentry Tuesday night, the chief of police today ordered all inhabitants of this famous university town to turn over all firearms by 10 p.m.

Anyone found in possession of arms after that hour will be shot on sight, said the official decree.

It is not known whether the German sentry was killed.

Government Assumes More School Costs

The provincial government has agreed to relieve municipalities of a large share of educational costs next year so that the proposed tax for teachers' pensions will not be a burden on them, Alderman George C. Miller of Vancouver, president of the Union of B.C. Municipalities, announced today after the union executive met the provincial cabinet.

The union representatives spent an hour with the cabinet and pointed out that the proposed levy for pensions—7 per cent on all teachers' salaries—would cost the municipalities between $300,000 and $400,000 annually. This entirely offset the $250,000 in special grants allowed in the new budget.

After the meeting Alderman Miller said:

Calgary Election

CALGARY (CP)—Polling the lightest vote since 1930, Calgary voters elected the following men to city council seats: Alderman Frank Freeze, C.G.T.A., 2,433; Alderman Fred White, Labor, 2,086; Alderman George Lancaster, C.G.T.A., 2,057; Alderman Reg Smith, C.G.T.A., 1,789; D. S. Moffat, K.C., C.G.T.A., 2,068; Alderman George Brown, Progressive Service, 1,702; Ernest H. Starr, Independent (elected for one-year term) 1,646.

Aldermen Freeze and White were elected on the first count, yesterday, Alderman Lancaster and Smith on the second, Moffat on the fourth, Brown on the sixth and Starr on the seventh under the proportional representation voting system. There were 11 candidates in all, and the poll was about 22 per cent of the total vote.

Crash Victims Burned

PODGORICA, Yugoslavia (AP)—The body of Ralph Barnes of the New York Herald Tribune, first United States correspondent to lose his life since the outbreak of the war, will be buried here today with the remains of three British airmen killed with him Monday in the crash of a British bomber against a mountain peak. Yugoslav authorities ordered military honors.

"As a result of the recommendations presented to the executive this morning the Premier, on behalf of the government, made the following definite statement: That, notwithstanding any relief that may be made through the Rowell-Sirois report, his government pledges that the additional 7 per cent tax on teachers' salaries will not cost the municipalities anything.

"The Premier said the government proposes, before the next session, to assume a much larger proportion of the educational costs of the province and we have nothing to worry about."

Alderman Miller said he was extremely pleased the Premier had made the statement. It relieved municipalities of a serious situation.

"The bombers being made available to Britain are equipped with the Sperry bomb sight which, in relation to the more efficient Norden sight, is considered more or less obsolete," he said.

"The Norden sight, of course, remains an American military secret."

Why should an executor be responsible FINANCIALLY?

Because there must be no possibility of betrayal of trust if the family's interests are to be safeguarded.

Yet there are thousands of widows and children dependent on the charity of relatives and friends, because the husbands neglected to appoint financially responsible executors.

With The Canada Trust Company as executor, the best interests of your family are continually provided for.

Enemy Unable to Repeat Big Blow

A.A. Breaks Up Night Raid on Midlands

LONDON (CP)—Terrific anti-aircraft fire took the sting out of the Nazis' second successive night of mass attack on the Midlands. This was the story put together as complete reports came in today.

The government described the raid as "intermittent and on a minor scale."

Apparently trying to strike another blow similar to that at Coventry a week ago, swarms of raiders poured over an east Midlands town during the night, but were dispersed by ground guns, firing with new effectiveness, after less than two hours of incendiary bomb-dropping—first step in the technique of total air war. The bombs were extinguished and little damage was reported.

Ground Gun Crews Have New Successes

A communique said: "A number of people were killed and injured" in the Midlands, where "fires were started and high explosive bombs demolished some houses and damaged others in several towns. Attacks on other parts of England, including London, were 'generally ineffective' and the toll of dead and injured was reported to have been small. The all clear sounded in London a short time after dawn, ending a night of light raids marked by long intervals without any Nazi air activity.

East Midlands Have Heaviest Attack

Although the night's attacks were not so widespread as the assaults Tuesday night, when a nine-hour raid left a dozen Midlands towns strewn with wreckage and dead and wounded, observers in the east Midlands sector said that during the early night hours that the raid was the fiercest ever made on that area.

Heavy anti-aircraft fire met the Midlands raiders, but they dived through the perilous bursts and came on, wave after wave. Observers on a hilltop said there were terrific explosions every second.

British authorities had waited grimly for a repetition of the Coventry and Birmingham assaults which many believe to be the opening of a new and intensive campaign of night bombing directed at the industrial areas, instead of London.

Belief prevails among observers here that the Germans are ready for continuous night assaults with pilots trained for night bombing with the same intensity with which the mechanized division officers and men were trained in Germany and tested on the Polish plains.

Some experts believe the Germans actually tried such an offensive in the heavy daylight raids in August when they were repulsed with heavy losses.

While Britain is strengthening her defences, the general feeling is that the best defence will be retaliation on a vast scale.

Bombs Dropped in South Wales

The government said bombs also fell last night in the London area, at one point in southern England, in the northwest and in south Wales.

Police of an important industrial town in the Midlands said last night that a day of digging through ruins left by the nine-hour raid the previous night so far had disclosed less than 29 known dead.

Germans Claim Ports Bombed

BERLIN (AP)—A communique from the German high command today said:

"On the night of November 19 20 our air force continued retaliatory flights against London besides a previously reported large scale attack on Birmingham. Additional raids were directed against port facilities at Weymouth, Northampton and Bourne-mouth and other war essential objectives.

"In the course of the day activity was limited to armed reconnaissance because of weather conditions."

2 Japanese Arrested

HAVANA (AP)—Two Japanese were held today at Cabo Cruz, near Manzanillo, Oriente province, by police who said the two had been arrested while making soundings in the sea at that point. The police said the two dumped overboard their apparatus, cameras and "documents" when they were seized.

Ontario, Quebec Get $304,428,820 In War Orders

OTTAWA (CP)—Of a total of $383,941,515 worth of war orders placed in Canada on Canadian account, Ontario and Quebec received $304,428,820, according to a statement by Hon. C. D. Howe.

The Minister of Munitions, addressing the Commons, referred to interest shown by members of the House in the distribution of war orders among the provinces. He said that in his opinion "the matter of distribution is secondary to that of obtaining efficient production."

Hydro-electric power was an essential of low cost production and large blocks of surplus power were obtainable only in Quebec and Ontario, he said.

The fact had much to do with location of new plants in those provinces. Figures given in his statement did not cover all war orders, but were representative, he said.

Of the amount shared by Quebec and Ontario, the former got $122,307,066 and the latter $182,121,754. In the case of Quebec, the per capita distribution was $38.10, and in Ontario $48.54.

Other provinces shared as follows:

Prince Edward Island, $1,764, 150, or $18.57 per capita; Nova Scotia, $7,445,561, or $13.44 per capita; New Brunswick, $6,363, 946, or $14.55 per capita; Manitoba, $10,686,375 or $14.70 per capita; Saskatchewan, $8,437,581, or $8.89 per capita; Alberta, $8, 187,256 or $10.38 per capita; British Columbia, $23,467,826 or $30.32 per capita.

Of the total there was $12,960, 000 divided among several provinces.

These figures, however, did not cover capital investments or British purchases.

POLITICS GOING, SAYS HENRY FORD

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry Ford says he believes the United States soon will take "its rightful place" in the world as a "big brother" able to "bang together the heads of any powers that would stir up war."

"But make no mistake about this," he adds in an article in the December issue of Scribner's Commentator, "we are not now in the position where we can adopt that 'big brother' attitude toward anybody and until and unless we are, we should not meddle in the affairs of other people."

As an aid to building up the country's strength for the "big brother" role, the automobile manufacturer suggested $5 a day should be paid every young man taken from a good job for compulsory training.

"Where will the money come from to pay that sum?" he asked. "It should come out of the millions of dollars that will yet be squandered upon politics before we manage to force that outmoded philosophy into the scrap heap. . . . The horse has virtually disappeared; the cow is next, and politics will follow."

Explosives Workers Treated as Warriors

OTTAWA (CP)—Employees in explosive plants "deserve the same type of recognition as that given our armed forces in the combat area," Munitions Minister Howe said in the Commons. He did not give details.

The minister interrupted a prepared account of Canada's industrial war effort to refer to the recent explosion at Nobel, Ont., where three workers in an explosive chemical plant were killed. Because explosions might be expected to be "almost inevitable," Mr. Howe said it was his opinion those employed there should be given the consideration accorded the fighting branches.

2 GERMAN JEWS SERVE CANADA

OTTAWA (CP)—Kurt and Erich Grunbaum, German nationals of Jewish ancestry, were permitted entrance to Canada in 1939 and 1940, respectively, for permanent residence for the purpose of going into business with capital to the extent of $75,000 each, the Secretary of State's department informed the Commons yesterday afternoon.

Replying to questions from Thomas Reid, Liberal, New Westminster, Hon. Pierre Casgrain, Secretary of State, gave a statement asserting that Kurt Grunbaum was added to the staff of the Foreign Exchange Control Board October 5, 1939, after a "searching examination of his antecedents and credentials, which had revealed that he left Germany because of the anti-Semitic measures of the German government."

He left the board May 22, 1940, his services having been "quite satisfactory." The statement noted he served without pay.

AIR MARSHAL PRISONER IN ITALY

LONDON (CP)—An official statement today said:

"The Air Ministry announces that Air Marshal O. T. Boyd, C.B., O.B.E., M.C., A.F.C., recently appointed deputy to the air officer commanding in chief, Middle East command, has been reported missing while crossing the Mediterranean by air."

"It is now learned that he is a prisoner in Italian hands."

FORCED DOWN

ROME (AP)—Capture of the new deputy commander of the Royal Air Force in the Middle East, Air Marshal Owen Tudor Boyd, was reported today by the Italian high command.

Boyd, former commander of the British balloon barrage forces, and six other men, including four officers, were captured in Sicily when a Wellington bomber made a forced landing, the communique said.

He was reported en route from England to take over the post when his plane went down.

Boyd, promoted to the rank of air marshal November 8, was appointed deputy to the chief air officer in the Middle East command in changes in the Royal Air Force made November 17.

Bishop Urges Schools Teach Religion

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—The "totalitarian method of taking children from their families and imposing on them a godless education" was denounced by Bishop Martin Johnson of Nelson in the principal address at the opening of the first junior Roman Catholic seminary in British Columbia here.

"It is false to maintain any theory or any practice that the child belongs to the state, before the family," he said.

"It is the right and duty of the state to educate and instruct youth," he said; but added that "the priority of the church must be kept in mind. School curriculums should include religious teaching."

The seminary, established by the Benedictine Monks from Mt. Angel, Ore., was blessed by Archbishop W. M. Duke.

Among those who attended the blessing ceremonies yesterday were Dr. L. S. Klink and Dr. R. E. McKechnie, president and chancellor, respectively, of the University of British Columbia. Many church dignitaries and more than 350 visitors also attended, including Bishop John C. Cody and Father J. A. Gaudette of Victoria.

Leopold Saved Troops'—Cudahy

NEW YORK (AP)—King Leopold of Belgium surrendered to Germany because "he knew he would be guilty of homicide if he asked of his exhausted soldiers further hopeless resistance," says John Cudahy, United States ambassador to Belgium.

"The king's lips are sealed," he declared in a broadcast address last night. "He can say nothing. He was made a prisoner of war . . . and stands convicted by accusation."

For five days, Cudahy asserted, Belgium's forthcoming surrender was known to the British and French military commands and to King George in London in a letter sent him by Leopold May 25—three days before the final capitulation.

He listed these events as reasons for the Belgian king's surrender:

"The 'fatal order of Gamelin,' commander of the Allied forces in Belgium, for abandonment of the 'iron wall'—the little Maginot Line."

"The 'crushing defeat' of the French 7th Army in Holland, the capitulation of the Netherlands armed force and the 'collapse' of the French 9th Army on the Belgian-French frontier 'from Sedan to Dinant on a front of nearly 50 miles.'"

"The defeat of the French 1st Army and the failure of the Allied counter attack."

"Already the British, realizing their only escape lay in reaching Dunkerque, had started for that port, destroying what equipment and munitions they could, and with them went the French," he recalled Cudahy.

"Where could the Belgians go? In such a crisis . . . national self-interest and national self-preservation determine actions and decisions."

(In a New York address Tuesday ex-Archduke Otto of Austria said that when Leopold ordered the Belgian army to surrender, thereby cutting off the British expeditionary force and some French divisions, he believed his Allies knew of his intent and were prepared. Otto asserted Leopold's messenger who was to inform the Allies of his intention was killed en route.)

$8.50 PER DAY FOR JOHN W. FARROW

OTTAWA (CP)—Lieut. John Farrow, director of naval information, was appointed to his post in view of "his exceptional experience and high qualifications," the navy department replied to a question asked in the Commons by J. A. Ross, Conservative, Souris, Man.

Answering other questions from Mr. Ross, the department said Lieut. Farrow was British, but was a resident of United States before offering his services at the beginning of the war. He was an author-historian and film director of note previous to coming to Ottawa.

Lieut. Farrow is paid $5 a day and $3.50 as allowance for his wife, the tabled report said.

Mrs. Farrow is Maureen O'Sullivan, the motion picture actress.

Bombay Ex-Premier Taken Into Custody

BOMBAY (CP)—Former Prime Minister Bal Gangadhar Kher of Bombay province was arrested today under Defence of India rules.

(In October, 1939, while still head of the provincial government, Kher took a stand similar to that of Mohandas K. Gandhi, leader of the Indian Nationalists, by offering a resolution in the Bombay state assembly calling on Britain to regard India as an "independent nation.")

Ravishankar Shukla, former premier of the Central Provinces, also was arrested in connection with the Congress Party's speaking campaign against the Empire's war effort.

Some Compensations

WHILE BIRMINGHAM'S WOUNDS DO not seem to be quite as serious as early reports suggested, although serious enough, it is good to learn that during the last 48 hours the Royal Air Force has matched the Nazi attack on the industrial Midlands with "very heavy" raids over the Reich which have included special attention to the great Skoda armaments works near the Bohemian city of Pilsen. These "visits" included two to Berlin, others to important shipyards, power establishments, synthetic oil plants, naval bases on the Nazi-dominated coastline, and, last but by no means least, to the vital Dortmund-Ems canal and the inland port of Duisburg-Ruhrort.

The Herr Doktor Goebbels gives us no detailed information about the damage done to the German war machine; for the most part his propaganda relating to the visitations of the R.A.F. places particular emphasis on slightly bent apartment houses and inconsequential disturbances to pastoral scenes. But Britain's reliable information from neutral sources puts the dislocation at the Krupp works at Essen at 50 per cent. It is also known that every one of the great hydrogenation plants on which the enemy's high command is placing so much reliance for synthetic oil has come in for systematic attention from the R.A.F. The establishment at Leuna, near Leipzig, is two miles long and a mile wide and its potential capacity is 400,000 tons annually; much of the plant already has been destroyed, as have similar plants in other parts of the Reich—notably at Geisenkirchen and Hamburg.

Of especial importance to Britain's air offensive against the common enemy, however, is the carefully-planned attacks on the Nazi railways and canalized transportation systems. The vital marshaling yards are at Hamm, familiarly known throughout the world as the most-bombed area of the war. We have already explained their significance in these columns. But whenever news of the bombing of the Dortmund-Ems canal or the port of Duisburg-Ruhrort is emphasized, almost as much importance can be attached to it as to the shattering of sections of the former 400-acre Czechoslovakian armament stronghold at Pilsen or the giant plant at Essen. No fewer than 19 locks dot the 170-mile water route as it flows from Dortmund to Meppen and then on to Emden in the open river. The Rhine-Herne canal, incidentally, connects Duisburg with Dortmund and, by way of the Dortmund-Ems canal, with German North Sea ports. The latter waterway accommodates cargo vessels of 700 and 800 tons, and each time its locks are damaged precious freight is "inconvenienced." Not only does the work of the R.A.F. dislocate the water-borne traffic; it compels still further use of such railways as are not themselves wearing the marks of British bombs and forces the use of motor trucks which demand the oil that Leuna and other similar factories are finding it more difficult to distill from day to day. These, then, are some of the compensations for Coventry—and the Birmingham which the Air Ministry emphatically declares has not been "concentrated."

Leave It To History

SIR NEVILLE HENDERSON, FORMER British ambassador to Germany, told an audience at Ipswich, England, on Monday that he did not know whether the critics of the late Neville Chamberlain realized then or now that on September 28, 1938—at the climax of the Munich crisis—"we did not have one Spitfire." He added that "we had one or two experimental Hurricanes and seven modern anti-aircraft guns for the defence of London out of 400 estimated as the minimum necessary."

If this was intended to be a compliment to the late ex-Prime Minister and the policy he pursued at the end of September more than two years ago—which, of course, it was—Sir Neville will probably be asked by some of those critics to whom he refers how it was that so little had been done by way of preparation for relatively certain eventualities between the day Hitler marched into Austria in March, 1938, and the Munich business of September 28 of that same year. The former ambassador to Berlin, moreover, also exposed himself to an inquiry as to how it was that Britain, six months after the pact sealed in the ancient Bavarian city, felt sufficiently strong to hurl her own memorable challenge to the Fuehrer by pledging Poland to go to war against the Reich if Polish sovereignty were jeopardized by a Nazi invasion. Had Britain's arming progressed so rapidly between that unforgettable September 28, 1938, and March 31, 1939?

Admittedly, all such questions are futile at this stage, and there is no more point in asking or trying to answer them than there is in Sir Neville Henderson, or anybody else, reviving what are supposed to be the realities which faced Chamberlain and Daladier when the blackmailers forced payment at Munich. The British Prime Minister of that day did what he believed to be right; leave the rest to history. The promise he made to Poland was kept. It was Hitler who made the mistake of his life when he forced the real issue nearly 15 months ago.

The Hartnell Case

ACOMPANYING A CONCISE HISTORY of the case with evidence and comments on information obtained by the police, Attorney-General Wismer advised the Department of Justice at Ottawa last September 12 that he concurred in the view of His Honor Judge Shandley that Peter George Hartnell, sentenced to three months on conviction under the Defence of Canada Regulations, should be interned for the duration of the war. On October 28 Mr. Wismer again wrote the Department of Justice at Ottawa. No decision in the matter has been received by the Attorney-General.

It will be recalled that the Crown appealed the case on the ground that the punishment meted out by Police Magistrate H. C. Hall was inadequate. In view of the fact that the Crown had won its case, leaving him no statutory authority to intervene in the course of justice so determined, County Court Judge Shandley refused the appeal and suggested internment as a satisfactory way to meet the Attorney-General's argument.

If it is not necessary to add anything to what already has been said about this case, it is to the point to suggest that intimation of what action, if any, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, federal Minister of Justice, deems advisable to take would be welcomed by Mr. Wismer and the public.

Judge Lampman

PETER SECORD LAMPMAN'S SPAN OF life began in the year of Canadian Confederation and ended at last midnight. From his early manhood he diligently watched this Dominion of ours grow to nationhood, played his part in its expansion, culturally, politically, as a distinguished member of bar and bench, and in those human ways which brought him into close personal touch with so many men and women whom he could genuinely call friends. All these will miss his cheery smile and his kind word. He was deeply attached to his garden, to his books, and to that most intriguing of all social levelers—he liked little better than his game of golf. Judge Lampman was one of the originals of the Pacific Northwest Seniors' Golf Association; the membership of this international body will learn of his passing with genuine sorrow. And to all the many expressions of sympathy that will go out to his widow and son the Times adds its own.

Explanations

FROM VATICAN CITY YESTERDAY came a radio contradiction of a Spanish newspaper article which attributed Christian principles to German National Socialism—that Nazism was a religious movement of Christian character. Said the Vatican:

"Firstly, this statement manifestly contradicts the bulk of Nazi literature which, during the past eight years, with unparalleled power and ingenuity, has attacked religion and the Catholic Church.

"Secondly, if National Socialism is a Christian movement, then how is it explained that in 1933 nearly all the youth in Germany was being taught in Catholic schools, whereas now these schools are closed?"

Those of us who work at the newspaper trade may not be fully qualified to discuss either theological problems or to answer academic or abstract questions as they relate to moral conduct. Most of us know, however, that National Socialism, whether sporting the swastika or the sign of the fasces, evokes passive or open support—or hostility which in no form is considered relative. One brings doubtful favors; the other brings torture of varying types.

Notes

A divide-the-wealth enthusiast in California has inherited $1,000,000 from an aunt. There will be a pause while he considers the new position.

Eight million a day is the Nazi charge for keeping an army of occupation in France. And every waiter in Paris who ever added the phone number to the bill is agast.

They have discontinued the famous six-day bicycle race in France. This is perhaps the first evidence that the nation may be tired of going around in circles and getting nowhere.

An Indian chief in Ontario thinks the winter will be mild. On the other hand, a Vancouver prognosticator says his wife's relatives have moved in three weeks ahead of schedule.

IN RIGHT DIRECTION

From Toronto Globe and Mail

Nothing the Dominion government has announced in recent weeks is likely to give greater satisfaction than the intimation of Hon. J. L. Ralston that the Cabinet is considering extending compulsory military training of young men for home defence from 30 days to four months. The change will not be made until the new year, since final decision has been left until the Minister of National Defence and his advisers consult with military and industrial authorities in Britain. But longer periods of training are inevitable, for while the 30-day period is useful for preliminary work, it is the consensus of military experts that not less than one year is required to produce an efficient soldier.

The four-month plan is a step in the right direction even if it does not meet the objection of experienced officers like Major-General Elmsley, who condemned the 30-day training scheme as valueless. It was established in the last war, when the Canadian Corps was so grievously short of reinforcements, that men having undergone preliminary training in Canada and 14 weeks of intensive training in England were regarded as insufficiently trained and experienced to take their place with the fighting units.

MRS. NOGGINS

WELL, WELL," said Mrs. Noggins, "and so you're back? I'm very glad to see you, sir," she said, confirming that assertion by draping the corpse of two white ducks over the upholstery of my car. "I seen by the papers you were in the States. We finally 'ad to get the paper for ourselves, you know, on account of Mrs. Boggs couldn't send us over any more garbage for the 'ens, wrapped in the paper, which we used to read out of you know. It's the war. Soon there won't be any more garbage at all, I suppose. I could see the livin' standard of the Boggs goin' down day after day, you know, until it was 'ardly worth while goin' over for the garbage any more, except to read the paper around it. So finally we took the paper ourselves and I seen you was in the States.

"I've never bin there myself, but I've seen it all in the movies, until I'm quite sure I could find my way around Times Square or Michigan Boulevard and through the White House. But the only 'ankerin' I ever 'ad for the States was the bathrooms, you know. Lookin' at the movies sometimes, I've thort, my but it'd be wonderfully comfortin' and sinful to set a soakin' in Clark Gable's bathtub. The Americans must be the cleanest people in the world, but don't it weaken 'em? I mean ter sigh, I feel quite washed out next mornin' after a good soakin'.

ALF IN AIR FORCE

WELL, SIR, I CAN'T MAKE OUT wot's 'appenin' these days. They say we are goin' to 'ave 'ard times before the war is over, but I dare say that won't matter much. Most of us never 'ad anything else, and perhaps we've 'ad too much luxury at that. When I think of the way I was brung up, with me sister's dresses made over, wot 'ad bin made over for 'er, and then, when I'm a-layin' in the tub in sheer luxury, as you might say, it seems downright wicked, when I never 'ad fresh water for meself until I was 16 years old—always my sister's bath warmed up, wot 'ad bin warmed up for 'er.

"And I said to my boy Alf—'e's in the Air Force now, you know, and bein' a plumber 'e's very 'andy with airplanes—I said to Alf, you 'ad better not give me no bath salts this Christmas, my boy, I said, because it seems positively sinful to be spendin' money on a pretty smell when millions of folks won't even get a bath in the world tonight. In wartime, I said, we can get along without them pretty smells, because we 'ave got to be patriotic, I said, all of us, like our fathers was, I said, and as a matter of fact my father was so patriotic he 'ardly ever took a bath at all. But to tell the truth it's no 'ardship for me, not gettin' the usual bath salts from Alf this Christmas. I was tired of them long ago and the war seemed a good chance to stop Alf buyin' 'em, for, in fact, Christmas 'ad got so I could smell it three weeks ort.

ALDERMAN ON SATURDAY NIGHT

WELL, LIKE I SAY, I can't understand wot's 'appenin' in the world these days. When the depression was on they told us it was our duty to spend all the money we 'ad to put everybody to work. But, of course, we 'ad no money to spend, so it done no good. Now, when we got some, they say we ought to stop spendin' our money and lend it to the government. So far as I can see, we can't 'ave any money either way, when it's a depression or when it's a boom.

"But where do they get the money for the war? That's wot I can't make out. In the depression they said the gover'mint 'ad no money to spend. But soon as we get into real trouble there's plenty of money for everything. It's like my Uncle Amos—and 'im an alderman in Liverpool—of a Saturday night 'e'd 'ave money to fling around on everybody. But come Monday and 'e wouldn't spend a cent. It depended 'ow 'e felt and whether 'e'd 'ad two bottles or 'alf a dozen.

PROSPERITY

WELL, LIKE I SAY, if they can find all the money for the war and all, why can't they find it after the war to fix up our road? Soon as the war is over, I s'pose, the gover'mint will be broke again. The gover'mint is only prosperous, it seems, when the country is goin' to the dogs.

"It's all Hitler's fault, I s'pose. But I recollect the gover'mint was broke before we ever 'eard of Hitler, and 'im still paintin' barns for a livin'. It does seem unpatriotic to mention it, but I didn't even 'ave a bathtub back in them days when Hitler didn't 'ave one either. So personally I don't count on anything different when the war is over. Everything will go along just about the same, and soon as Alf gets out of the army I'll bet 'e'll be givin' me bath salts every Christmas. Why, I can almost smell the peace comin' already, sir."

GREETINGS

From the New Yorker

Ex-Governor Hoffman of New Jersey was invited, a while ago, to a welcome-home party for a honeymoon couple from Perth Amboy. He was unable to attend, but he sent them a nice telegram: "To the historic scroll of love eternal whereon are the names of Darby and Joan Tristram and Isolda Ulysses and Penelope added and Gert Silkerberg."

Parallel Thoughts

The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lord that seek him: your heart shall live forever.—Psalm 22:26.
Selfish men may possess the earth; it is the meek only who inherit it from the Heavenly Father, free from all afflictions and perplexities of unrighteousness.—Woolman.

WATCH WEGYAND

THE MOST HOPEFUL sign on the war horizon today is in French Africa. The refusal of General Maxime Weygand to return to France may not be proof that France is on the verge of a new period of attempted resistance, but taken with other obvious facts it is a reminder that our relations with France as a nation have decidedly improved in the past week or two.

It is obvious that the out-and-out tools of the Nazis, such as Pierre Laval, have failed to carry with them even the Vichy government. It is true that the Germans have the physical power to arrange the forcible changing of that government whenever they so desire. But the important thing is the revived French morale—the undisguised will to resist their temporary conquerors. They have shown that there was a point beyond which they were not willing to go.

The forcible expulsion of French residents from Lorraine was probably the result and not the cause of the more self-respecting attitude of the Petain government. If the Nazis had much hope of what Laval called "full collaboration" they would hardly have been so stupid as to drive from their ancient homes the French-speaking people of Lorraine. Even the Germans, the world's worst psychologists, are hardly so dumb as not to know that such an example of "full collaboration" would be unlikely to encourage the French to enter the war on the side of their oppressors.

WHAT FRANCE COULD DO

Weygand is something of a mystery. His fanatical hatred and fear of the Communists was no doubt chiefly responsible for the fact that in mid-June he threw his weight on the side of surrender to the Germans, rather than continued resistance, if, as and wherever possible. I think history will record that action as one of the most shameful and stupid of modern times. Yet Weygand is one of the world's best strategists. He saw, long before the small fry like myself did, that French Africa now holds an ultra-important position in the whole war scene.

The melancholy but decisive victory of the Royal Navy over the vacillating French fleet; and the even more decisive victory of the British Naval Air Force over the Italian navy have together left the British sea power relatively as strong as it ever was. Hence French armed forces could renew hostilities in North Africa, in co-operation with the British, with complete certainty that they could not be overwhelmed by the Nazis for so long.

That is why I hope, and believe, that Weygand will do everything in his power to keep out of the physical power of the Nazis—which means, of course, that he must keep the British Navy between himself and France. I would be greatly surprised if Weygand were to attempt to fight the Nazis in the open in the immediate future. But the time may come sooner than many people expect.

ALLIES WON'T SAVE US

While there is at least a remote hope that we will again get substantial French military help before the war is over, we can depend only on our own forces. The whole free world has got a thrill out of the decisive temporary beating administered by the Greeks to the Italians. What happened in Finland, and many other places, should teach us to be cautious in these cases. It is likely that Hitler ordered Mussolini to get his troops well involved in the Grecoan invasion before his own tank corps started down through Bulgaria because the Nazis are well aware of the great unpopularity of the war among the Italians. Hitler is too foxy to get himself in a position such as Mussolini is now in—absolutely dependent for rescue on his gangster-partner.

My impression is that most people in North America have in the past few months swung too far from the depths of unjustified pessimism to the heights of equally unjustified optimism.

The most crucial period of the war is ahead of us—not behind us. Neither in the air nor on land has Hitler got nearly to the end of his tether. The Battle for Britain will probably prove to be child's play compared with the Battle for Suez.

The point is that once we show we can hold the lifeline Hitler's enemies may spring up from all around him with almost instantaneous effect.

Democracy works in America because you fought for it. In Europe it failed because most of the people there acquired it not through their own efforts but through the Treaty of Versailles.—Count Ferdinand Cernia, Austrian refugee author.

NIVEN BARRICK BACK

Dixie Tighe in New York Post
David Niven, who managed to hold his place in London society during his long service in Hollywood, had a bad time of it when he went down and joined up.

The men didn't like being given orders by an ex-Hollywood star. It was all a little bit too theatrical for them.

After several days of their glowers and apathy, Capt. Niven barked:

"If you men think I would rather be here drinking you than in Hollywood making film love to Ginger Rogers—you're nuts!"

"BOOM" IN ST. KITTS

From St. Catharines Standard

One of the most noteworthy things about the heavy industrial boom in this city, and also the fair condition of the farming community, is the Saturday night traffic jam.

After 'all, the congestion is a far better condition than thoroughfares down which a machine gun might open up without hitting a solitary person. In most Ontario towns and cities the condition is just the same, but it has never been quite what it now is every Saturday in St. Catharines, with tops also for the other days of the week.

Film Shows How Soldiers Trained

The answer to the question of thousands of civilians with sons, husbands or brothers in the army—the question of how their boys live in camp, what they learn and how they spend their leisure time—is contained in "Letter From Camp Borden," the latest in the series of "Canada Carries On" films, produced by the National Film Board of Canada.

The picture, showing in striking manner the making of a soldier and an army for the grim mechanized warfare against the Axis powers, opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday. It illustrates the thorough training imparted to Canada's young recruits, from the day they enter the huge camp as "rookies" until the time, 28 weeks later, when they can be pronounced trained soldiers, ready to meet the enemy with the advanced machines and weapons that distinguish the war of today from that of a quarter of a century ago.

While centring attention largely on the importance of mechanized units and of the training of men to handle efficiently the machines of war, the film yet serves to show the vital need of trained infantry troops. It concludes with some impressive scenes during manoeuvres, carried out with the equipment and under the conditions of actual war.

PEP MEETING LIVELY

The second pep meeting of the school year was held at Victoria High School yesterday at noon. Over 1,000 students jammed the assembly hall to hear a program of music, song, fun and frolic.

The meeting was held for the purpose of advertising the school paper, The Camosunet, the first issue of which will be out next week.

The Collegians, the school jazz orchestra, consisting of Ted Spencer, Don Kerley, Dick Merrick, Steve Kershaw and Elvinth Jones, got the program under way with "Call of the Canyon" and "Johnson Rag."

Joy Merriman, ventriloquist, and "Torchy" presented a very amusing number. Tick McCoy, master of ceremonies, sang "We Three," accompanied at the piano by Ted Shadbolt. A comedy act was presented by Jimmy McKeachie, who played the part of an old Scotsman. Michael Jennings appeared as the feeble school spirit. Music for this act was supplied by Jim Munroe and Fred Copas, who played the bagpipes.

A skit entitled "How To Be a Soldier in Six Easy Lessons," was presented by members of the Cadet Corps. The role of Hitler was portrayed by Harry Mitchell; a bugler by Roger Anstie; a pretty girl, Bill Baird, and soldiers: Ray Wormald, Bruce Bewell, George Beck, Don Parridge, Tom Mackay, Bill Rourke and Don Straith.

Art Foley of Winnipeg, western Canadian yo-yo champion, concluded the program with a display of intricate tricks.

SALT SPRING
GANGES—Ganges unit of the Canadian Red Cross held a remembrance shower and tea in the Log Cabin here where Mrs. J. Manson received donations.

By the sale of poppies on Remembrance Day the sum of $37 has been turned over to the local branch of the Canadian Legion by the Ganges Chapter, I.O.G.E.

Members of the South Salt Spring Island Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. R. Cornish, the president, Mrs. W. Hamilton being in the chair. It was decided to hold a jam shower for the benefit of the Queen Alexander Solarium at Mill Bay.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Shaw, Fulford.

A house and property at Victoria Bay has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. D. Keith Wilson to Charles Trafford, a recent arrival from England.

A sale and tea organized by the Ganges Chapter, I.O.G.E., was held at the Log Cabin.

Over $80 clear of expenses was noted for the chapter funds.

The United States has 20 per cent of the world's railway mileage.

Troops Entertained By Beaver Club

A well-diversified concert was presented before an enthusiastic audience of soldiers on Monday night by members of the Beaver Club concert party.

Included on the program were vocal and instrumental solos, a ladies' vocal quartette and sextette, a mixed vocal trio, a Hawaiian chorus and a humorous game of truth and consequences.

Capt. T. McGimpsey, on behalf of the soldiers, expressed his appreciation for the splendid evening's entertainment, with the ardent hope that the concert party would return in the near future.

Cecil Walton was the genial master of ceremonies. Those taking part on the program were: Winnifred Applegate, Violet Cloggie, Dorothy Harper, Dorothy Hill, Hazel Boulden, Margaret Winton, Olive Ashton, Mable Moore, Barbara Hoggarth, Barbara Draper, Lucy Frankham, May Peden, John Pimm, Kenneth Cave, Harry Morrison, W. Roth and C. Cotter. Piano accompaniments were rendered by Mae King and John McAllister was the guest artist.

Parrots will pick up simple sentences, without training, if they hear them often enough in household conversation.

GARDEN CITY

The November meeting of Garden City United Women's Association was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Parker, Kenneth Street. Mrs. A. P. Fryatt presided. Reports were presented by Mrs. W. Armstrong, secretary; Mrs. W. A. Hoy, treasurer, and Mrs. W. P. Brown, visiting committee. It was decided to hold the December meeting at the manse, Glyn Road, on Wednesday, December 11, when officers for the year will be elected.

LANGFORD

A jamboree will be held in the Canadian Legion Hall November 22, under auspices of the Prince Edward Branch.

NERVOUSNESS

"We are not getting enough Thiamin", say scientists. Modern refining of foods has caused a shortage of this precious element, absolutely necessary if we are to feel our best, look and think as our best. Thiamin (Vitamin B1) affects nerves, growth, digestion. It is needed for energy. In fact, acts as a "spark-plug" that helps turn food into energy. Quaker Oats contains Thiamin enough to "spark" itself and twice as much additional food into energy. Thiamin is not stored up in the body. Like some other vitamins. You need a fresh supply daily. Make the delicious Quaker Oats breakfast a daily habit. Get a package at your grocer's today.

CHARUEST—MESSENIER

At St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Cathedral yesterday morning Rev. Monsignor Baker united in marriage Roland Charuest and Anna Messenie, both of Quebec. The witnesses to the ceremony were Messrs. Ferdinand Boucharde and Alphonse Roy. The bride wore a wedding gown of heavy white crepe, fashioned on Grecian style, with long sleeves and the waist girdled, with wedding veil in shoulder length and her bouquet a shower of roses, carnations and white heather. Following the service the bridal party assembled at the home of Alderman D. D. McTavish and Mrs. McTavish, Douglas Street, for a wedding breakfast.

The bride and bridegroom left on the afternoon boat for Vancouver on their way to Red Pass, B.C., to spend their honeymoon. For traveling the bride donned a grey ensemble. The bridegroom is attached to the R.C.A.F., the Western Air Command, Belmont Building.

CHILLIWACK—At St. Thomas' Anglican Church November 11, Rev. H. P. Barrett united in marriage Elizabeth Goldfinch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Goldfinch, Young Road South, and Albert Hawkins, R.C.N., son of Mrs. Hawkins, Victoria. St. Thomas' choir sang. Richard Hawkins, R.C.N., attended his brother, and Edward Goldfinch and Arthur Goldfinch, brothers of the bride, ushered.

The bride wore a period gown of white brocade satin, her only ornament an heirloom necklace given to her by her grandmother. From a wreath of creamy gardenias, her lace net veil fell over the train of her gown. She carried pale pink roses.

Mrs. Norman Farquharson, her sister's matron of honor, wore peach crepe with matching turban and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Patricia Ford, bridesmaid, wore blue net over taffeta with turban in tone, and her bouquet was pink and mauve roses. Phyllis Clapman, niece of the bride, wore a flower girl's frock of white mull over pink silk and carried a colonial bouquet in pastel shades.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with mothers of the bride and groom presiding at the lace-covered table centred by a three-tiered cake. Mrs. Goldfinch was gowned in purple with large picture hat to match, and Mrs. Hawkins was in purple cut velvet and lace and mauve turban. Both wore gardenias.

For her honeymoon in Vancouver the bride changed to a dark green frock with hat and accessories to match over which she wore a fur coat of dark brown.

Capt. and Mrs. Watt, Victoria, aunt and uncle of the groom, were in Chilliwack to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will make their home in Victoria.

Engagements

DOHERTY—JAMES

Mrs. Stanley James, Fernwood Road, announces the engagement of her niece, Margaret Vera, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. James, Victoria, to Mr. John Robert Doherty, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doherty, 1264 Gladstone Avenue. The wedding will take place at Trail, B.C., on December 21.

The Ladies' Guild of Centennial Church met in the schoolroom on Tuesday, the president, Mrs. W. McCague in the chair. After the business meeting, tea was served. Mrs. Couch and Mrs. Prisk presiding. The tea table was attractively decorated with single chrysanthemums and tall tapers. Assisting were Mesdames Kilby, Musgrave and Blane. A musical programme included solos by Mrs. T. Corry, Mrs. Greenway, and Mrs. W. Leach, and a short talk by Rev. J. Turner. Mrs. Paul Green was the accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clarke, who were married last Saturday. The bride was the former Miss Ivy Leonard.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. John Montague, Scott left today for their home in San Francisco after visiting here and at Cowichan. Mrs. Scott was the former "Babe" Musgrave.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McWha, Linden Avenue, left yesterday afternoon for Vancouver to visit friends, and will return at the beginning of next week.

Mrs. Ian Woodburn of Vancouver, who has been spending a couple of weeks here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ross, Fairfield Road, returned home this afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. M. E. Kenworthy will regret to learn that she is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, suffering from a broken leg which she sustained in an accident at her home.

The Earl of Athlone and Princess Alice gave a luncheon at Rideau Hall yesterday in honor of the new Japanese Minister to Canada, S. Yashizawa, and his wife. Prime Minister King and Conservative House Leader Hanson also attended.

Mrs. Milton Williams entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Routledge, Wilmut Place, last night, in compliment to Miss Phyllis McIntosh, who is to be married shortly to Mr. Sydney Rodd. The guest of honor found her gifts on a table grouped around a bowl of lavender-colored chrysanthemums. A buffet supper was served. The guests were Mrs. J. M. McIntosh, Mrs. W. H. Routledge, Mrs. M. Rodd, Mrs. P. Gillison and Misses Gerry Kent, Eleanor Conkey, Gladys McIntosh and Isobel Routledge.

An enjoyable tea was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Cameron, Moss Street, in aid of the Women's Auxiliary Air Services, the approximate sum of $30 being raised. Mrs. Cameron was assisted in receiving the guests by the president, Mrs. L. W. McDougall, and Mrs. L. W. Campbell, the tea convener. Mrs. T. H. Johns and Mrs. G. McCurdy sang groups of solos, which added to the pleasure of the afternoon. Tea was served upstairs, and Mrs. A. E. Godfrey presided over the table, which was covered with an Italian cut-work cloth and centred with mauve chrysanthemums, flanked by yellow tapers. Autumn leaves and chrysanthemums decorated the reception room.

A delightful recital of Scandinavian folk and Christmas music was given by Miss D. M. Duke last evening at her suite on Fort Street, when the majority of her guests were from Scandinavian countries. A year ago Miss Duke was made a member of the English Folk Song Society of London, England, one of whose tenets is to foster folk music, of which Miss Duke has the best collection in Canada, according to Sir Ernest MacMillan. The hostess was assisted by Miss Marion Inglis, whose rendering of Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, English and Scotch folk songs delighted the guests. Dulcimer and pianoforte selections were also given by Miss Duke and Miss Inglis. A Scandinavian atmosphere was introduced into the surroundings by the use of numerous lighted white candles in Scandinavian candlesticks, as the only illumination in the large studio, while blue and green, the Scandinavian colors, were used in the decoration of the room and on the handsome birthday cake, which not only marked the occasion of Miss Duke's birthday, but the initial recital of its kind to be given in Victoria. Attractively arranged, programs were adorned with eleven, symbolic of the Scandinavian Christmas season.

Ambulance Corps Started At Rally of 450 Women

With Mrs. G. F. A. Townesend as acting commandant, Mrs. J. F. A. Lister as secretary and Mrs. Barclay-Ross as treasurer, the Victoria unit of the B.C. Women's Ambulance Corps got off to a good start towards permanent organization last night at the Empress Hotel.

Evidence of the keen desire of Victoria women and girls to help in the war effort, about 450 thronged the ballroom where the meeting was held. Mrs. Jessie M. Clegg, secretary of the corps, who acted as chairman, and the speakers, Reeve J. B. Leyland of West Vancouver, Leo Sweeney and Frank Bird, all of the B.C. Automobile Association, which is sponsoring the movement, expressed their amazement and pleasure at the enthusiastic response to their appeal for recruits for the new corps, noting that prior to the meeting, and in the two days since the movement had started, 150 Victorians had applied for membership.

COMPREHENSIVE COURSE

Mrs. Clegg outlined the proposed program of lectures and classes. A.R.P. work would be studied as well as first aid and advanced field nursing, wireless telegraphy, archery, motor mechanics, truck and ambulance driving and a motorcycle corps as a branch of the regular activities. The corps members would pay a membership fee of $10, which will include navy blue uniform, accident insurance policy for $1,000, affiliation with the B.C. Automobile Association and the cost of instruction classes in ambulance and other work.

As the course will be carried on with the cooperation of the St. John Ambulance Association, which is shortly to open an official headquarters here, Mrs. Clegg suggested that the corps might not start the lectures and classes until early in the new year, owing to the imminence of Christmas. In answer to a question, she stated the course would cover a period of about eight months.

TO ASK ARMY AID

The speaker also suggested that the Victoria corps, when fully organized, should enlist the help of the army and should request the use of new C.P.R. trucks for driving experience. She felt sure, she said, that expert instructors in the various subjects included in the course could be easily found. The Victoria corps might specialize in learning to run motor boats, so that, in the event of an emergency the members could act as a messenger service up and down the coast. A motorcycle corps would also be a valuable asset in case of emergency, she said.

NO JEALOUSIES

Mrs. Clegg and Reeve Leyland both emphasized that the formation of the corps would in no way interfere with any other similar organization which had already been formed here. "We should welcome as many associations of this kind as possible, to let everyone, including our enemies, know that we, as women, are preparing for the worst, while hoping for the best," said Mrs. Clegg. "There will be no jealousies between our corps and any other group, only the friendliest competition, which is stimulating and puts us on our toes."

Mrs. D. Buscombe Macfarlane and Mrs. Charles Robinson, members of the Vancouver corps, told of details connected with organization as experienced in Vancouver.

Red Cross Notes

Shirley Junior Red Cross staged a successful party at the community hall recently and cleared $6.68 from the sale of home-made candy.

The regular monthly meeting of the Shirley Red Cross Unit will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. H. F. Anderson.

A dance and sale of work will be held in the Otter Point Hall on Saturday evening, sponsored by the Shirley Unit of the Red Cross.

ST. JOHN'S A.Y.P.A.

Tuesday's meeting of St. John's branch opened with a business session which was followed by a newspaper night under the co-sponsorship of Vernon Hooper. A group of the members attended the dance at St. Mary's Hall held by St. Mary's branch. On Thursday a team from St. John's will enter into debate with South Saanich branch as home team. There will be a meeting as usual on Tuesday next.

Raise Over $400 at First United Sale

Greenery and Christmas decorations lent a festive air to the bazaar held yesterday afternoon by the combined groups of the Women's Association of the First United Church in the gymnasium and Sunday school room.

Through this united effort, the 14 groups raised over $400 for the church funds. Mrs. A. E. Whitehouse opened the affair and was introduced by the general convener, Mrs. W. S. Dawson, and was presented with a bouquet of chrysanthemums by little Colin Nicholson. Mrs. J. B. Munro, president of the Women's Association, Mrs. Hugh McLeod and Mrs. Dawson received the guests.

An imitation Santa Claus directed the visitors to the tea served under the direction of Mrs. Hudson at individual tables in the Sunday school room, which was decorated with Christmas colors. The attractive stalls included: Cooking, aprons, Christmas logs, "white elephant" and Christmas gifts, and were convoked by various members of the 14 groups.

Jubilee Graduates in Seattle to Hold Tea

SEATTLE—Graduate nurses of the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria, B.C., will hold a tea from 2 to 6 p.m. on Thursday, November 28, at the Sorrento Hotel, Seattle, for the benefit of the British-American War Relief Fund. A varied program has been arranged.

Mr. C. E. Thomas will speak on British-American relief work; Vera McBain will sing, accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Wilson, and Mrs. Hugh Fleener of Sherman and Clay, will play the solo-vo. There will be tea and reading during the afternoon. Mrs. Gordon McKay and Mrs. Edward Q. Anderson will preside at the tea table.

Hostesses will be Misses Diana Crystal, Fern Donaldson, Zetta Potter, Margaret Morrison, Myrtle Collingwood and Mrs. K. Robinson. Mrs. Vera Fisk, Mrs. Lou Ballard and Mrs. Troy Milliken.

Mrs. Churchill Asks Indian Women for Understanding

LONDON (CP)—Mrs. Winston Churchill, inaugurating a series of weekly broadcasts to the women of India today, said "We ask of India, not pity, but understanding and the sympathy which comes from understanding."

It was the first broadcast made by the wife of the Prime Minister. "We know that you have given of your wealth, that Indian soldiers are helping to fight our joint battles all over the world," she said.

"I sometimes hear it said that it is hypocritical of the English to rail at tyranny in Europe and refuse freedom to India. But in any case you in India can have no conception of the tyranny that would overtake you if the British were beaten in this war."

Noting that "we are all in the front line," she said "none of these hideous events have touched you yet."

LIFE THRILLING

Despite the horrors of bombing, she said "I find life in England today absolutely thrilling and I am glad to be alive at this great moment of our history."

"We are quite literally living under the shadow of death," she continued. "We can still say that 999 out of every 1,000 people are unharmed. All the same there is a chance that death by violence may come at any moment to any one of us and that is what I mean when I say that life is thrilling—not physically enjoyable."

Mrs. Churchill concluded that Britons were "fighting and working in a great cause in conviction of the truth of the Prime Minister's words: 'We shall not lag or fail. We shall go on.'"

New 'Y' Club to Work For Needy Britons

The first meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Residence Girls' Club was held Monday evening, with 20 members present. Mrs. W. E. Cushing presided at this initial meeting to assist in organizing the group. Plans were discussed to determine the ways in which the club can aid the raided areas in England, by making blankets and clothing. Work began immediately on a colorful knitted blanket and surprising progress was made. It is the intention of the members to have readings and voluntary entertainment of an educational nature while they knit and sew. Arrangements were made for a card party to be held in the Y.W.C.A. club room in the near future, in order to raise funds for materials.

The following officers were elected: President, Miss Eve Campbell; secretary, Miss Dorothy Boyd; treasurer, Miss Peggy Turnbull; press correspondent, Miss Velta Thompson. The work committee consists of the Misses Ethel Moore, Ida McCoy and Gorton; the program committee of the Misses Dora Payne, Ruth Bawthelmer and Mrs. Cushing, and the social committee of the Misses Pat Fitzpatrick, Swanson and Hemminger.

Tea was served by the program committee.

Missionary Sale Raised Over $300

The annual missionary sale held in the Memorial Hall gymnasium yesterday afternoon by the Senior Evening, Business Women and Girls' Branches of Christ Church Cathedral W.A., netted about $300 for the work of the three branches. Dean Spencer Elliott, in opening the sale, emphasized the need of continuous service for the church, especially now that the Church of England in Canada has been cut off from its financial assistance from England on account of the war.

Miss M. Sill, president of the business women's branch and general convener of the sale, was assisted by Miss Peggy Fatt, president of the girls' branch, and Mrs. Spencer Elliott, in receiving the guests.

Conveners of the prettily decorated stalls were: Home cooking, Mrs. Small and Miss Jones; girls' branch stall, Miss Muttlow and members of the business women's branch, with Mrs. C. Brooks as representative; evening branch stall, Miss Sill and other members; plants, Mrs. Edwards, and post office, Miss Fatt and Mrs. Ward. In charge of the tea arrangements were Mrs. Hitchens-Smith and Mrs. Relf. During the afternoon Mrs. Kent Jones played pianoforte selections, and recordings on the gramophone were played.

The W.A. to Army and Navy Veterans held their monthly meeting recently. Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Phillips were appointed sick visitors for the month. Mrs. Sartin and Mrs. Welsh will visit the hospitals. One dozen children's sleepers and one dozen kimonos, also towels, wool and flannelette have been purchased and, along with other garments, will be sent to Overseas League for dispatch to England. A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. W. Carey recently. Moving pictures were shown and a collection taken, proceeds of which were given to the auxiliary's flannelette fund. The ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Moffatt, 1775 Denman Street, on Friday evening for a sewing meeting.

May Resume Gifts To War Prisoners

Advice has now been received at local Red Cross headquarters that the personal parcel service to British prisoners of war and internees in Germany has been resumed. The next of kin of one relative may send one parcel, not exceeding 11 pounds in weight, every three months to a British prisoner of war or internee, but not more than one parcel every three months will be accepted from all sources.

The instructions previously issued regarding strong packing and the method of inscribing the address, as well as the name and address of the person from whom the parcel comes, are to be adhered to. The following inscription must be written over the address: "Prisoner of war parcel" with the German translation "Kriegsgefangenen sendung" immediately below. In the lower left-hand corner of the address label, the parcel must be marked "Postage free"—"Gebührenfrei." The address should be in printed block capitals, and must include the following information:

Line 1—Navy, army, or air force number, rank, surname, followed by Christian name or initials.

Line 2—British or Canadian prisoner of war in Germany.

Line 3—Camp name or number.

Line 4—Base Post Office, Ottawa.

THESE ARE BARRED

The parcel may not contain any of the following articles: (a) Food, except bar chocolate; (b) cigarette papers or paper cigar or cigarette holders; (c) photographic apparatus, field glasses, compasses, electric torches and other instruments for uses of military or naval purposes; (d) medical comforts, drugs and pharmaceutical products; (e) written communications. Letters must be sent separately by letter post; (f) printed matter, maps, pictorial illustrations and photographs; (g) money; (h) writing paper, notebooks, stationery, stamps and playing cards; (i) fountain pens, pens and ink; (j) telegraphic and telephonic materials; (k) radios and radio materials, including apparatus, inflaming materials, matches, spirits, diffused spirits; (m) luggage, tins and other receptacles cannot be conveniently opened for inspection; (n) weapons, including large pocket knives and scissors. Nail scissors excepted. Prisoners of war in Germany are not allowed to receive newspapers or periodicals.

These instructions do not apply to dispatch of parcels to non-internee civilians. There is, at the present time, no means of dispatch for parcels to non-internee civilians in belligerent countries.

Special attention is drawn to the fact that a prisoner may only receive one personal parcel every three months from all sources. These instructions have no reference whatsoever to parcels dispatched to prisoners by the Canadian Red Cross Society, but apply only to parcels forwarded by individual relatives directly to the prisoner.

SPARE THE LIGHT—SPOIL THE SIGHT

Today's pressure of education, close reading, intensive application to indoor tasks under incorrect lighting conditions all take their toll of precious eyesight.

BETTER LIGHT—BETTER SIGHT

Scientific research has shown that a great deal can be done to protect our sight—safeguard young and youthful eyes—help adult eyes. Seeing specialists and lighting engineers have long advocated better light as a means to better sight.

Urges Students Get Better Chance

The Department of Education was urged in the Legislature yesterday to revamp its system of matriculation examinations.

E. T. Kenney, Liberal, Skeena, said that out of 7,000 students writing the junior and senior matric exams in June only 2,100 passed completely in all subjects.

"I know they are allowed to take supplementals to get their certificates, but I cannot accept the fact that only 30 per cent of our students are clever enough to pass the full exams on one year's work," he said.

Mr. Kenney pointed out students had to pay $1 a paper for supplementals and often had to travel to centres away from their homes, which they could not afford.

"It is a very serious matter for our students, because in these modern days they cannot get anything worth while without a matriculation certificate," he added.

"Either it is a case of them not being examined on what they are taught; or not taught what they are to be examined upon. I would seriously suggest the Education Department overhaul its system and see what is wrong."

WARNS OF DANGER

Mr. Kenney dealt at length with the government's declaration that it would not accept the Rowell-Sirois report recommendations in toto.

"I was born in a province (Nova Scotia) that was ruined by Confederation and I don't want to see the province of my adoption ruined in the rearrangement," he said.

Mr. Kenney said British Columbia had achieved higher standards of living by standing for heavy taxation and it would not be justice for the federal government to take the revenues away and reduce the standard.

He pointed out that the Rowell proposals could not be viewed as a "take it or leave it" proposition but must be looked at simply as a basis for discussion.

Referring to the plan for the Dominion to take the income taxes and succession duties, leaving the province such revenues as gasoline and motor taxes, liquor profits and natural resource levies, he declared:

"This seems to mean we'll have to drink ourselves to death or drive ourselves to death in order to get enough money to live on. Is that fair?"

The Skeena member urged completion of a road out to Terrace and Prince Rupert and asked greater consideration for mining prospectors. He wanted an assay office in connection with the Prince Rupert ore sampling plant.

War Effort Not Helping Cranbrook

A plea that orders for war materials be distributed among firms in smaller towns of the province rather than concentrated in large centres was made by Arnold J. McGrath, Liberal, Cranbrook, in the Legislature yesterday.

He also complained that there were no training centres or troop concentrations in any part of the Kootenay districts.

The Cranbrook member advocated that a survey of all land areas be completed before any land settlement scheme was commenced and said he opposed any general immigration scheme that would be detrimental to people already there. Too often in the past immigrants had come to take the better jobs and reduce British Columbians to the pioneering stage again.

Mr. McGrath came out strongly for a larger allocation of forest revenues toward a policy of planned forest management. He wanted a bigger appropriation for the forest protection fund so that adequate fire-fighting crews could be trained.

Turning to the Alaska Highway project, he urged that in planning the route a link between the Big Bend Highway and Prince George be considered. This was the most direct route north from Spokane through Cranbrook and Windermere, with the B.C. section half paved. The Alberta Highway system would also be linked with it.

Touching on tourist business, he suggested that besides American visitors, there was lucrative Canadian tourist trade that would be attracted. Finally, he appealed for more attention to the Southern Transprovincial Highway.

Train 500 Firemen

VANCOUVER (CP)—Plans for training 500 men in Greater Vancouver for auxiliary fire department service have been announced by Air Raid Precautions officials. Those who enlist will be given short courses in elementary principles of fire fighting. They will be subject to call only in event of a major emergency.

Peace Farmers Lose Big Crop

Because of the war granaries of the Peace River country were choked with grain and farmers felt they were casualties of the conflict, but were patriotically carrying on and waiting to send their produce to any part of the Empire that needed it. Glen Braden, Liberal, Peace River, said yesterday in the Legislature.

"The Peace River country had, this year, its greatest crop in history," Mr. Braden said. "There was so much grain that, when it was threshed, the elevators were forced to double their storage and farmers had to leave the overflow until they could build their own granaries. But, because of the war, the great crop has been a disaster, and the farmers are realizing hardly a cent out of it."

"Because of this, many of the farmers are turning to livestock, although this will never take the place of grain. But the farmers have an optimistic outlook and agriculture, in spite of all drawbacks, is not back—many young men are returning from the cities to the land, realizing that farming, despite all its heartbreaks, has many compensations."

Mr. Braden said the 3,000 Sudeten Germans in the Peace River country were doing well as farmers and had had a successful season, although they were not farmers when they arrived from Europe.

"Of course, anyone who wants to work in the Peace River area will be successful," he said.

He told how the leader of the colonists had written Prime Minister Mackenzie King offering the services of the colony's young men to Canada in the war effort. This gesture, he said, had created better feeling between them and

The Georgian Choristers, of which Mrs. Georgina Watt, above, is the energetic leader, will give a concert in the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, November 26, under the joint auspices of the Burns Club and the Choristers. A splendid program of solos, duets, trios and choir ensembles will be given. Fred Wright and Miss Catherine Craig will be the guest artists. The choir has won many prizes competing at the various musical festivals in Victoria and Vancouver, and its performances are always of a high order and attract large audiences.

The English-speaking residents. Many of the young Sudetens had begun life savers to the farmers, as they worked as hired hands at harvest time, taking the place of young men who had joined the armed forces.

Mr. Braden said the greatest need of the Peace was an outlet to the coast. He asked for a graveling program on the roads, as in winter they were almost impassable and farmers found it difficult to get their produce 50 miles or more to market and the railways. Oil drilling in his district, he said, was encouraging the people, who some day expected a great oil industry there.

ASK INQUIRY INTO ST. PAUL'S HOSPITAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—Demand for a full judicial inquiry into the recent formation of the St. Paul's Hospital Club will be forwarded to the B.C. government by the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council.

Delegates voted unanimously in favor of the move at a meeting after hearing charges concerning alleged disregard of labor legislation by the hospital and intimidation of the staff.

The council also placed in the hands of the grievance committee a resolution to place St. Paul's Hospital on the "unfair" list. Endorsement of the resolution by the committee would be tantamount to requesting the entire membership of unions affiliated with the council to boycott the hospital.

STRAWBERRY VALE

Wilkinson Road United Women's Auxiliary held its monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. Jones, Carey Road. Mrs. J. Hoy presided. Reports were presented by Mrs. A. Allison, secretary, and Mrs. W. Jewell, treasurer. Arrangements were made to hold an afternoon tea and sale of work and home cooking at the paragonage November 27. Plans were also made for sending Christmas boxes to the young men from the Wilkinson Road congregation serving with the forces. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H.

Judge Lampman Called to Rest

Peter Secord Lampman, 73, who retired from the post of County Court Judge of Victoria in 1936 with seniority on the British Columbia bench second only to that of Hon. Archer Martin, retired Chief Justice of British Columbia, died at the family residence, 2570 Nottingham Road, at midnight.

Suffering from a stroke while at his Shawanigan Lake summer home of August 30, he had rallied slightly but failed to make any substantial gain. His condition had been critical for some time.

A figure of great popularity in Victoria, he had been sincerely honored by the Victoria Bar Association when he celebrated his 25th year on the bench, six years before he retired. After a quarter of a century of service he received from the legal fraternity here a silver rose bowl as a token of the high regard in which he was held.

NOTED ONTARIO FAMILY

Born in Thorold, Ontario, in 1867, to a family well known in eastern Canada, Judge Lampman claimed kinship with the famous Ontario heroine, Laura Secord, and was a relative of the distinguished Canadian poet, Archibald Lampman. He attended public and high schools in his native town and later went to Trinity College, University of Toronto, from which he graduated in 1888. He read law with Miller, Cox & Yale, in St. Catharines, Ontario; Bruce, Burton & Bruce in Hamilton and Hall & Kilmer in Toronto. Called to the Ontario bar in 1892, he left for British Columbia the following year where he was admitted and practiced with George Powell.

After two years he retired from active practice and accepted the position of secretary of the Law Society of British Columbia, a post he held until 1905 when he was elevated to the bench.

Enjoying an exemplary reputation as a judge, his services were in frequent demand beyond the confines of the court. In the educational field he prepared and submitted, in July, 1932, a report on the University of British Columbia, aimed at increasing the efficiency of that institution. On another occasion he was called in to investigate taxation matters in Saanich.

HIGHLY ESTEEMED

His retirement from the bench in 1936 brought many tributes from varied sources over the ability and fairness with which he had dispensed justice during his 31 year term. Beyond the court, he was known and liked virtually universally for the warmth of his personality, his keen, almost boyish interest in current affairs, his devotion to the beauties of the garden and his healthy and sustained interest in clean sport.

Among the many affiliations which claimed his co-operative interest were the National Council of Education and the University Extension Society in the field of education, the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club and the Northwest Seniors' Golf Association in the field of sport, and the Oak Bay Rose Society in the horticultural sphere. He spoke with a kindly authority on all subjects related to his particular hobbies, and enjoyed a wide circle of friends in all strata of society.

He is survived by the widow, the former Miss Maud Prior; one son, Thomas E. Lampman, and whose wife is the former Marion Wilson, daughter of Mrs. B. Wilson, Rockland Avenue; and two grandchildren, Peter and Judy Lampman, in San Francisco.

Thanksgiving in 32 States Today

NEW YORK (CP) — Headed by President Roosevelt, who was at his home at Hyde Park, N.Y., United States citizens in 32 states celebrated Thanksgiving today.

The 16 other states will observe Thanksgiving next Thursday, on the usual last Thursday in November.

Stock and commodity exchanges were closed throughout the country. People attended church services and held quiet home dinners.

President Roosevelt carved the turkey at a dinner attended by Mrs. Roosevelt, the President's 86-year-old mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, his son and daughter-in-law, Franklin Jr. and Ethel, and the widow of his half brother, Mrs. James Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt broke a personal Thanksgiving tradition, however, by passing up his annual November visit to Warm Springs, Ga. With the exception of 1936, when he went to South America, the President has presided every year since he first was elected to the White House at a Thanksgiving dinner for patients of the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation for victims of infantile paralysis.

HOLLYWOOD PARTIES

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Folks who say Hollywood has too little home life should have been around today to peek in on the United States Thanksgiving dinners of the movie mighty.

Mostly, they were family affairs — such as those of the Bing Crosby, Bette Davis, Henry Fonda, Harold Lloyd, Jimmy Cagney, Don Ameche, Norma Shearer, and Jane Withers. A few prepared banquets for friends — Andy Devine, Bob Hope, Mischa Auer, Leo Carrillo, Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck.

Charlie Ruggles, following an old custom, took 25 orphans to his ranch.

A.F.L. DELEGATES IN FISTFIGHTS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — David Dubinsky, president of the International Ladies' Garments Workers' Union, and Joseph Fay, vice-president of the International Union of Operating Engineers, early today figured in a series of fistfights following a discussion of an anti-racketeering resolution before the A.F.L. convention.

Dubinsky, one of the authors of the measure, said he had three separate fights with Fay in the lobby of the Roosevelt Hotel during an argument about the resolution.

He said Fay, in the presence of Dubinsky's daughter Jean, used profane and insulting language, and threatened him as a prelude to the fight.

In one of the engagements there was a general melee in which several persons were rolled on the floor. Later Dubinsky went to his room, where he said Fay called him to make amends. Dubinsky's union put a guard on the door.

Fay could not be reached for a statement today.

President William Green of the A.F.L. later said he knew nothing about the fight, beyond that "it was purely personal."

Treasurer E. Dwyer Gray says the new taxes will be designed to encourage matrimony and child-bearing and will recognize responsibilities of married men of all income brackets.

Married men earning $151 (about $225 Canadian) to $212 annually will be rebated 20 per cent if their incomes are earned personally; 10 per cent if it is derived from property. A married man will receive a further rebate of $39 and $13 for each dependent child.

A super tax of 5 per cent will be imposed on bachelors earning from $183 to $212; 10 per cent on those earning $213 to $312; 15 per cent on those earning more than $312. There will be a super tax of 10 per cent on married men earning over $4,000.

Canadians Rescue 118 From Torpedoed Ships

Members of the crew of the Canadian destroyer Ottawa carry injured ashore at an English port after their destroyer saved 118 persons from two merchant ships torpedoed by a Nazi U-boat. The ward room of the destroyer was turned into a temporary hospital to treat the injured passengers and crew of the torpedoed vessels. Among those picked up by the destroyer was Mrs. Louis Snock, left, wife of a Dutch Air Force officer. Torpedoed two weeks after their marriage in England, Mrs. Snock and her husband were both uninjured. Mrs. Snock is an English girl and met her husband while he was serving with the Dutch forces in England.

SKATER SLAIN—Mikael Staksrud, internationally famous Norwegian speed-skating star, who was found murdered beside a lake near Oslo. Police are investigating the theory that Staksrud was the victim of a political plot. He was a member of Major Vidkun Quisling's pro-Nazi party, and was believed to have been kidnapped. Staksrud competed in the winter Olympic Games at Lake Placid, N.Y., in 1932.

First Americans in 'Retreat From Shanghai'

Back in America and glad of it were these women and children evacuees when they arrived in San Francisco aboard the President Pierce from Shanghai and the Orient. Dependents of navy, marine personnel and American business executives they had been warned by the U.S. State Department to return home in the face of growing war tension in the Far East.

THERE'S NOTHING IN THE REGULATIONS TO BAR CONFETTI—In Toronto's first all-military wedding, Helena Booth, a member of the Canadian Women's Service Force, was married to Pte. Leslie Patrick, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. Here the couple leave the church through the guard of honor furnished by the C.W.S.F. and R.C.A.S.C. They will reside at North Bay where the groom is in training, and where the bride intends to form a branch of the women's organization.

BABY BOMBED INTO MOTHER'S ARMS—When Hitler's bombs rained on a town "somewhere in England," one struck and demolished the home of Mrs. Ann Haltrecht and her 14-month-old baby. Tearing through the roof, it hit the baby's crib, tossing the youngster through a hole in the ceiling. Mrs. Haltrecht caught the youngster "basketball fashion" saving him from harm. They were among refugees arriving in New York on the liner Samaria.

Chemical Plant After Third Blast

Another in the recent series of mysterious explosions in industrial plants injured two men and wrecked part of the American Cyanamid and Chemical Corporation's 65-acre works at Bridgeville, Pa., near Pittsburgh, Penn. It was the third blast at this plant in a week. Pictured after the blast is the 600-by-100-foot main building. Damage was estimated at $250,000. (NEA telephoto).

NAZI FLIERS SHOT DOWN—RESCUED BY BRITISH—This photograph, made aboard a British destroyer on Channel patrol, shows British sailors guarding a group of Nazi fliers. The fliers were shot down off the coast by aircraft of the R.A.F. coastal command and rescued from their shattered, sinking planes and rubber lifeboats by the men of the destroyer.

HER HOUSE SPEECHES CENSORED—Mrs. Doris W. Nathan, Unity, North Battleford, Sask., attacked the Defence of Canada Regulations on the ground that "any man or woman living under British justice should know what they are charged as being guilty of and have a trial by jury." The lone woman member of the Commons declared to an attentive House that "in my opinion the first line of defence of democracy in Canada is here and is now." Members of the House on both Liberal and Conservative sides muttered "amen" when she related how a pamphlet entitled "Democracy Must Live," containing speeches she had made in the House, had been seized and persons selling them had been arrested.

PRIME MINISTER INSPECTS POLISH FORCES—Prime Minister Churchill is pictured with Gen. Sikorski as they reviewed Polish troops in England. Many of these soldiers escaped from Poland after Germany's victory over their native land and traveled to England to again take up arms against the Nazis.

FOUR WENT OUT—NOW THERE ARE ONLY THREE—Ever since the war began, residents of Tampico, Mexico, who looked out across their harbor saw this spectacle—four German ships, the Orinoco, Idarwald, Phrygia and Rhein, lying at anchor in the sanctuary of Mexican waters. Now they see only three of them. All four ships, evidently trying to sneak back to Germany, put out to sea. A few miles out they saw powerful searchlights on the horizon. The crew of the Phrygia, fearing capture by what they thought must be a British warship, scuttled their freighter. The other three raced back to Tampico.

WHEN WINTER COMES—Here are a few of the countless automobiles trapped in drifting snow recently when a raging blizzard swept down over Minnesota. More than a score of persons lost their lives. Rescuers struggled through sub-zero weather in search of storm victims. The cars shown were traveling on a highway near Minneapolis when the storm broke. Motorists in many instances abandoned their automobiles and fled for shelter.

VICTORIANS ARE NOT going to get a chance to see the Revelers in action against the classy Calgary Bronks. Plans for the charity Canadian football clash on Sunday ran into a brick wall Tuesday when the city fathers found it impossible to grant the local club the use of the park, except on the conditions that no gate be charged. It is unfortunate that some scheme to put on the game could not be worked out as the fans would have witnessed a great exhibition and Britain's bombing victims would have benefited to the extent of several hundred dollars.

It appears that Jack Patterson, Victoria's smart amateur heavyweight, is going to have some competition in the Vancouver Golden Gloves tournament after all. Reports from the mainland state that Gordie Grayson, smart scrapper from the Esquimalt Naval Barracks, and Sid Argyle of Creston have entered the heavyweight division. Grayson is a mighty classy fighter and a former holder of the Canadian middleweight championship. We saw him in action, at a recent navy show at the barracks, and he gave the impression of knowing how to handle himself in the ring. But he is still only a mid-dieweight and in a bout with Patterson would have to give away plenty of weight. And that means a lot against a heavyweight who can hit with power like the Victoria boy. Argyle was the runner-up in last year's Golden Gloves tournament. He is an unknown quantity to us, but we will put our money on Patterson to finish the winner. He's got too much class and punching heavyweight in this province.

Three other navy scrappers will take part in the tournament, including welterweights Johnny Smith and Young Battaglia and lightweight Jimmy Jones. This lad Smith is liable to win a championship at Vancouver. He is certain to make a great impression. In an exhibition scrap on the recent navy card he treated the spectators to a grand exhibition of punching, speed and beautiful footwork. Entrants in the welter division will have to show plenty to hang a tag on this chap.

Office boy dropped the first Christmas card on the desk today. Was from far-off Australia under the signature of Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Brooks. Note informed us that wrestling has become almost as popular as horse racing "down under." Rocky states he has been wrestling regularly and recently had a great bout with Brother Jonathan. Mrs. Brooks (better known to her many friends as Pete) says she saw Billy Hanson work in a good match and took great delight in razzing him from the sidelines. The former Victorians wish to be remembered to all the gang here.

A champion in the truest sense of the word. That is the best way to describe Jack Purcell, Canada's great badminton professional, who will appear in the Red Cross charity match at the Willows Monday night. Purcell has dominated his field in no uncertain manner for years and is recognized as the finest player of the modern game.

Back in 1930 Purcell reached his peak as an amateur, for in addition to retaining his Canadian singles title, he met on successive nights the four leading British amateur stars who were touring Canada. D. C. Hume, R. C. F. Devlin, and defeated each one of them in that order, losing a single game to Nichols. These four Britishers then monopolized the All-England singles championships over 10 years.

According to one prediction, automobiles of the future will have body and fenders of plastic with color as an inherent part of the material.

It wasn't Dominoes' 46 to 23 win over K.V.'s which took hold on the hoop fans at the Willows Sports Centre last night. It was the second senior game on the program which provided the punch, 5th B.C. Coast Brigade sliding in ahead of West Road 28 to 26.

Standing in the senior division show Dominoes unbeaten in six games; K.V.'s, Tillicum Arrows and Coast Brigade deadlocked in second place with three wins and three defeats each and West Road at the bottom of the list having been beaten in six starts.

West Roaders won the praise of the fans last night for their fighting spirit. The favored army team paced by Hank Rowe, who scored 14 points, went into the lead in the first quarter and held it until the final period when the Saanich boys tied the score. The deadlock at 26 to 26 came with only a few seconds left in the game. In those few seconds Coast Brigade's new forward, Frank Collier, found the hoop with the winning basket.

Rowe's 14 points gave him the high scoring honors. Collier came next with eight points. Three other players scored two points each. West Road's scoring was more evenly distributed. R. Mitchell, B. Mitchell and R. Kent each getting six points.

ART CHAPMAN CLINGS
Art Chapman is flicking on all six in Dominoes' defeat of Kayvees. Art dropped home 16 points.

Kayvees showed a lot of fight but hadn't a chance over their much taller opponents. Dominoes outscored them in each quarter.

Prendergast led the losers in scoring with eight points.

In the preliminary game on the program Hoyle-Brown scored their first win of the season, downing Chinese Students 26 to 19. It was an intermediate B boys' division game.

"Buzz" Brown and Bob Macmurchie refereed. The teams and scores follow:
Dominoes-Nicol 8, Davies 4, Jackson 8, Patterson 2, A. Chapman 16, C. Chapman 6 and Acreman 2.

K.V.'s-Fair 3, Uttie, Inglis 4, Beere 4, McCorkill 2, James 2, Barbour and Prendergast 8.
5th R.C.A.-Williams, Shotten 2, Morton, Rowe 14, Walls, Bremner, Martin 2, Collier 8, and Bray 2.

West Road-R. Mitchell 6, B. Mitchell 6, R. Kent 6, G. Kent, Cunningham 2, D. McBeth 2, McHattie 2, and E. Butler 2.
Hoyle-Brown - McFarlane 2, Nixon 7, Oliver 2, Woodhouse 10, Wilkinson 3, Finlay 2, Walker and Malcolm.

Chinese Students-John Mar 2, Jack Mar 4, John Chow, Harry Chow, Henry Chow, Herbert Shum 1, Sam Soong 2, William Mar, Tommy Eng and Hervet Yuen.

Bert Janke Signs With Canadiens

MONTREAL (CP) - Officials of Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League announced yesterday they have acquired Bert Janke, 22-year-old defenseman of Montreal Royals in the Quebec Senior Hockey League, from Detroit Red Wings reserve list at the waiver price of approximately $5,000.

Janke, who played with St. Boniface Seals when they won the Memorial Cup in 1938, is expected to sign a contract with Canadiens and see action this Saturday.

Eastern Grid Final

TORONTO (CP) - Executive of the Canadian Rugby Union met here during the week-end to decide the venue, officials and other details of the eastern football final.

Secretary R. W. Hewitson said the question of a single game or home-and-home games to decide the section champion will be discussed, if someone brings the matter before the meeting.

The eastern final always has been decided on a single game, but Ottawa Rough Riders and Toronto Balmy Beach were reported to be considering a two-game series if they won out. Toronto Argonauts and Sarnia Battery are the other teams in the league play-offs being completed Saturday.

HERNSTADE HOCKEY FROM MONTREAL (CP) - Two former National Hockey League players, defenseman Moe Croghan and winger Rod Lorrain, signed yesterday with Quebec Senior Hockey League teams after being reinstated as amateurs by the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

Colorful Horse Show

Peacetime entries attracted full measure of attention at 55th National Horse Show, which had military color, at Madison Square Garden. Mrs. W. R. Batcheller's Royal Rage, shown with Patricia McCullum, lower left, won in Class 48 for three-gaited saddle horses, over 152, ridden by amateurs. Lightweight green hunters are being judged in the centre. Upper right, the Point O'View Farm's Bourbon Lad takes a jump in competition among thoroughbred hunters.

Savages Coming

Battle Dominoes

Powerful S. L. Savidge basketball team of the Seattle Community League will be in town Saturday night for a game with the Dominoes at the Willows Sports Centre. Winners of the annual Seattle P.I. Northwest tournament at Seattle last spring, the Savidges took in the A.A.U. affair at Denver and made the finest showing of any Seattle club to ever participate.

Dominoes and Savidges hooked up in three games last season, two in Victoria and one in Seattle, and on each occasion the American players finished on top. All three engagements produced plenty of smart basketball and Saturday night's fixture should prove no exception.

Savidges are again under the management of Steve Antonich. Their line-up reads like a blue book of the University of Washington basketball roster with seven former Huskies on the squad. The boys who formerly sported the colors of the U. of W. include George Ziegenfuss, Ed.

GAMES TONIGHT
Three league games are scheduled tonight at the Willows Sports Centre. The program follows:
7-Hoyle-Brown vs. Cloverdale Aces.
8-K.V.'s vs. Y.M.C.A.
9-Eagles vs. Commercial.

U-Drive Teams Take Matches

Winners in last night's A division matches in the Victoria Table Tennis Association were the league-leading Hill's U-Drive and Sylvester U-Drive. The former turned in their sixth straight victory at the expense of Macdonald Electric 19 to 17, while Sylvesters defeated Liberty Cafe 21 to 15.

Sylvesters and Liberty are now tied for second place, seven points behind Hill's.

Individual scores follow:
Hill's U-Drive-Singles: D. Elworthy 1, Renfrew 8, A. Elworthy 4, Prior 4. Doubles: D. Elworthy

"My family wish me to remain in this country and as father is unable to send financial support because of wartime restrictions I feel I must take a job," said Miss Hardwick. "This opportunity permits me to continue to do the thing I love best and to play against the best players in the world."

"I have arranged to give a liberal percentage of my earnings to British war relief."

FINE PARTY FOR ANGLERS CARDED

"It's going to be a fine party," said secretary Bill Rowe today as he announced that preparations for the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers Association's annual jamboree are almost completed.

The big event will take place Tuesday night in the Shrine Auditorium at 8.

Tickets can be secured at Wilson and Lanfesty's, Government Street.

Dancing will be the feature of the evening, but some fine concert entertainment will also be presented. Refreshments will be served.

Loverich, Bill McDonald, Pat Dorsey, Harry Lockhart, Dick Izzard and Bill Strand. Rounding out the squad will be Bill Chase, former Washington State College player.

Dominoes will be out to retain their undefeated record at home. Last Saturday night the locals defeated Angelus Hotel of the Vancouver Intercity League and last night marked up their sixth straight victory in the Victoria league.

Two preliminary games will be played Saturday. Starting at 7, Y.M.C.A. and K.V.'s junior boys will clash, to be followed by a senior men's league battle between West Road and K.V.'s. The Dominoes-Savidges tussle should start about 9:15.

Discipline Not Worrying Peck

CLEVELAND (AP) - The turbulent Cleveland Indians will play next season for the calmest man in baseball.

Roger Peckinpaugh, who starts his task fortified with a two-year contract, is one of those persons who counts to 1,000 before acting.

With the baseball world wondering what he will do with a group of players who revolted against their 1940 manager, Peck recalled yesterday that he had had discipline trouble only once in his 1928-33 regime at Cleveland.

This rift came in 1932 when Wes Ferrell, his ace pitcher, objected to being taken out of a close game. We made a few remarks on his way to the bench and mumbled a few more after sitting down.

Peckinpaugh didn't decide to suspend Ferrell quickly. He thought it over for the rest of the game and then gave him a 10-day rest without pay. Today Ferrell is one of his best friends.

Peck started his diamond career on the Cleveland sandlots and caught on with the old Cleveland Naps in 1910. Since that time "Rog" has had only one job outside a baseball uniform—the American League promotional assignment which he gave up to take over the Indians.

A light but timely hitter, Peck was one of the great shortstops of his time and was selected the league's most valuable player while with Washington in 1925.

Ruth Hardwick On Tennis Tour

CHICAGO (CP) - Signing of a contract to appear with Don Budge, Bill Tilden and Alice Marble on a tennis tour yesterday swept Ruth Mary Hardwick, British Wightman Cup star, into professional ranks.

The 25-year-old British net star started playing tennis 10 years ago. She is a veteran international competitor.

"My family wish me to remain in this country and as father is unable to send financial support because of wartime restrictions I feel I must take a job," said Miss Hardwick. "This opportunity permits me to continue to do the thing I love best and to play against the best players in the world."

"I have arranged to give a liberal percentage of my earnings to British war relief."

Injuries Force Rangers, Amerks to Shuffle Clubs

Day Doing Good Job With Leafs

TORONTO (CP) - For a fellow who claims he's only trying to make the team himself, Clarence (Hap) Day is doing all right in his first try at coaching. His Toronto Leafs are leading the National Hockey League, and on his record to date he looks like the coach of the year.

The Leafs lost their first game to New York Rangers and then won four straight, beating Detroit, Canadiens twice and Boston.

Players are combining with the result there has been a remarkable distribution of scoring power. All but three are listed in the scoring records, and one of these, Bob Davidson, is on the injured list.

Gordie Drillon and Syl Apps have six points each; Nick Metz, Wally Stanowski and Hank Guldup four each, and Pete Langeille and Billy Taylor three each. Aggregate points of the 13 players reaches 40, an average of eight points for each of the five games played.

When Davidson hurt his knee and disrupted the team's most effective scoring unit, Day brought in Nick Metz to play with Apps and Drillon.

This line has worked so well, Davidson is expected to have trouble regaining his old berth. Metz, with his speed and ability to score, has taken a lot of opposition pressure from the star Apps and the high-scoring Drillon.

When the shift was made Taylor and Don Metz were left with a left wing, so Day took the veteran Sweeney Schirner and plunked him alongside of these youngsters. The team work of the cagey Schirner and the shift Taylor has been a feature of recent games.

Sale of Boston Bees Still On

NEW YORK (AP) - Every body is keeping quiet, but the sale of Boston Bees may be accomplished before the major league meetings three weeks away.

The buyers will not let the persons whose names have been given publicity in that connection, but Bob Quinn is going to remain at the helm and may even be the organizer of the syndicate.

There was a zephyr around town Thursday that Brooklyn Dodgers were about to be sold, but it turned out to be a press agent stunt on behalf of a stage and radio entertainer.

Russell (Lena) Blackburne, coach of Philadelphia Athletics, will be the next manager of Toronto's International League club.

He's a popular farmer star and pilot of the Leafs and old Connie Mack, his present boss, has the naming of the Toronto skipper. Larry MacPhail can't understand why other clubs besides Brooklyn don't put their players through off-season physical check-ups. One of his discoveries in the latest examinations was that a pitcher coming up from the minors with an impressive strikeout record and little control can barely see out of his left eye.

Coast Hockey Ends in Draw

SEATTLE (CP) - A beautifully-executed three-way combination play in the third period gave Seattle-Olympics a 3 to 3 tie with Spokane Bombers in a Coast Hockey League game here last night.

Bombers led virtually all the way in the first contest but the Olympics overtook them with Downie's counter in the third. Neither team scored in overtime.

The result moved Seattle into a second-place tie in league standings with Portland Buckaroos.

SUMMARY
First period - 1, Spokane, 1, 14:17.
Second Period - 2, Seattle, Lofvendahl (Taber), 8:27; 3, Spokane, Scharie (Palm), 10:14; 4, Spokane, Webster (Blyth), 12:30; 5, Seattle, Downie (Daley), 18:54. Penalties: Webster, Coulter and Norris.

Third Period - 6, Seattle, Downie (Taber, Daley), 8:04. Penalty: Lofvendahl.
Overtime Period - No score.

RELAX SPORT BAN

GUELPH, Ont. (CP) - The ban on competitive sport that has been in effect in most Canadian universities since the war began has been partially lifted at the Ontario Agricultural College, it was announced yesterday.

A protest lodged by the students has led the faculty to relax certain restrictions, and games now may be arranged in any sport, provided the competition is staged here.

Each Squad Loses Two Players

From a distance, one can almost picture Red Dutton brushing off the blackboard in the New York Americans' dressing room. If things keep up, Red might need his famous old sign: "Keep Punching, Boys!"

The Americans' city rivals, the Rangers, gave the Duttoners a 3 to 2 beating Tuesday night, and Wednesday the doctor's gave Red an even worse mauling by telling him he had lost Goalie Earl Robertson for one game at least and defenceman Pete Slobodian for a month.

The losses hit Dutton just when he needed the players most - on the eve of the season's first engagement against Toronto Maple Leafs, who are in front of the National Hockey League. They play at New York tonight in one part of the three-game program.

The Ranger-American clash was anything but a tea party. Robertson suffered a bruised shoulder and Slobodian a fractured cheekbone while the Rangers' Dutch Hiller had a bad ankle cut and Art Coulter a fractured shoulder bone. Coulter will be out of the game for a month.

CALLS ON ROOKIE

In the crisis, Dutton had to call on a rookie to fill Robertson's place. Charlie Rayner, who starred with Kenora's amateur Thistles last season, will be brought up from Eddie Shore's Springfield club, and Hooley Smith will fill out the defence.

When asked about replacements, Manager Frank Boucher of Rangers said he would carry on with three defencemen, Babe Pratt, Ott Heller and Murray Patrick, but that one of his forwards, either Neil Colville, Alf Pike or Lynn Patrick would take occasional turns on defence to help out. If Hiller cannot play Saturday, Boucher will get a forward from Philadelphia Ramblers, possibly Bill Allum.

Slobodian suffered his injury, Dutton said, because he has not had enough experience to guard against hits. When Slobodian and Phil Watson collided during a Ranger attack on the Americans' goal, Watson automatically pushed out with his stick to protect himself and the stick struck Slobodian's cheek.

Wilson Money Case Dismissed

Charge against Wilson Money, under the Defence of Canada Regulations of having in his possession literature likely to be prejudicial to the safety of the state and efficient prosecution of the war, was dismissed by Magistrate Henry C. Hall this morning.

The charge against Money was laid on October 13, when R.C.M.P. officers searched his bedroom at 2640 Blanshard Street and found a quantity of Communist and Socialist literature. These consisted of single books by Lenin, Beatrix and Sidney Webb, Engels, New Advance Magazine and Island Clarion. There were two copies of pamphlet "Why Be a Socialist" by John Strachey, and three copies of pamphlet "Soviet Union and Finland."

Magistrate Hall said he interpreted "in quantity" in the regulation to mean a number of copies of the same book, not a number of copies of different books.

Magistrate Hall imposed a fine of $50 on Money for failing to have a firearm in his possession registered. Money pleaded guilty to the charge earlier.

Wants Forestry Corps Enlarged

OTTAWA (CP)—The government will be asked in the Commons Friday whether consideration has been given to increasing the strength of the Canadian forestry corps beyond the 20 companies which have been raised.

A. M. Nicholson, C.C.F. MacKenzie, Sask., gave notice of this question today and his query will refer to the "reported lack of sawmills in Great Britain to cut home-grown timber."

He will also ask, in view of the large surplus of apples, whether consideration has been given to free distribution of apples in northern Saskatchewan where the frost has ruined wild and domestic fruit crops.

NEW CHAPLAINS
 OTTAWA (CP)—Capt. Rev. E. H. Thompson of Brockville, Ont., only clergyman of the Standard Church of Christ of America holding a chaplain's post in the Canadian army, navy or air force, is to be sent overseas, the Department of National Defence announced yesterday.

Hitherto attached to the chaplain's pool of military district No. 2, Toronto, Capt. Thompson is to be posted to the 1st Division, C.A.S.F. overseas.

Other appointments in the Protestant chaplain services announced yesterday included Capt. E. N. P. Orme of Kindersley, Sask., Church of England, attached to chaplain's pool, M.D. 12, Regina, to be posted to the 1st Division overseas.

Women Ask Ban On Jap Oranges

The Provincial Council of Women in session here this morning called on all its members throughout British Columbia to boycott Japanese oranges, and will also urge the government to ban the importation of such fruit into Canada.

The discussion evoked the hope from one member that the Foreign Exchange Board is not making exchange available for the purchase of oranges or any other imports from Japan, while a Vancouver woman quoted figures to show that, although the majority of Chinese vendors last year refused to sell the fruit, British Columbia spent $500,000 in the purchase of the oranges last year.

The gathering also endorsed an emergency resolution sponsored by the Vancouver Local Council, and asking that "the sale of alcoholic beverages in taverns, beer rooms, wine shops, etc., be discontinued, and that the sale be confined to government-owned stores; that hours of sale from such government-owned stores be restricted to between 3 and 8 p.m., on week-days only, and that all advertising of liquor be restricted to the place of sale, and that when the request as to the place of sale is implemented, the Department of Defence notify all commandants of military establishments."

The council endorsed the resolution asking that the old age pension be raised to $1 per day or $30 per month, and will also commend to the government the suggestion that medical care and supplies be furnished to these pensioners. The provincial government will also be asked to instruct the schools to return to the practice of saying the Lord's Prayer in every classroom each morning.

The growing toll of deaths and accidents in the logging industry also led the council to endorse a resolution calling for the tightening up of regulations governing camps, stricter enforcements of rules, closer co-operation among all concerned and the introduction of more advanced safety methods in such camps.

Mrs. F. J. Rolston of Vancouver, provincial president, presided at the meeting which is being held all day in the Y.W.C.A., and attended by representatives of the Vancouver, North Shore, New Westminster, Chilliwack, Nanaimo, Kamloops and Victoria Local Councils.

Maitland Demands Cut in Budget

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader in the Legislature, today gave notice he will ask the House to force the government to withdraw its 1941-42 budget and cut down expenditures.

Amounting to a want-of-confidence motion Mr. Maitland's resolution, to be moved tomorrow, reads as follows:

"Whereas Canada is at war, and whereas the said war requires great expenditures on the part of the people of Canada and whereas the taxpayers in every province must contribute to greater taxation requirements of the Dominion government for the purpose of prosecuting the war, and whereas no effort has been made in British Columbia to assist the Dominion in meeting the said requirements; therefore be it resolved that this House respectfully requests that before Mr. Speaker leave the chair the House go into committee of supply for the government to reconsider the estimates of expenditure which the Minister of Finance proposes to present to this House with a view to reducing the same."

Gas Francis, 845 Pandora Avenue, walking north on Quadra and crossing Pandora Avenue last evening was struck by a car driven by Albert Reynolds, 736 Transit Road, according to a city police report. Reynolds was going east on Pandora. Francis was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital where he was treated for a scalp wound by Dr. Herman Robertson.

TOWN TOPICS

St. Alban's A.Y.F.A. will hold a dance in the Parish Hall on November 29, from 9 until 1.

A luncheon meeting of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held at Spencer's next Tuesday.

Construction of a gravel sidewalk to replace the wooden one now in place on Lee Avenue is requested by residents of that street in a letter received today at the City Hall.

Bank clearings in the city for the week ending today were $1,958,718, Victoria Clearing House officials announce. Clearings for the corresponding period of last year were $1,905,637.

Damage was done to cars driven by Wong Hec, 1722 Government Street, and Mrs. Mary Williamson, Creighton Tourist Camp, when they met in collision yesterday at noon at Bay and Quadra Streets.

W. Craig, 3846 Rowland Avenue, reported to city police that he picked up a soldier on the Craigflower Bridge yesterday afternoon and gave him a ride as far as King's Road and Douglas Street. On returning home he found his wife's purse had been taken from the rear seat.

Cars driven by Mrs. M. Pebernatt, 837 Devonshire Road, and Alex Bennett, 280 View Royal Road, collided at Rock Bay Avenue and John Street yesterday. Bennett's car was forced off the road, went through a fence and stopped against a house. Mrs. Pebernatt received a cut on the back of the head and lip.

A luncheon meeting of the Victoria Real Estate Board will be held tomorrow in Spencer's private dining room at 1215 Hubert Lethaby will present a summary of real estate conditions for the first ten months of the current year. Further reports will be given on rental control and on the Dominion 5 per cent tax on properties outside Canada.

A fractured leg and slight scalp wounds were suffered by Roland Wilson Sr., 2641 Cadboro Bay Road, when he was struck by a car yesterday afternoon at the corner of Todd and Cadboro Bay roads. The car, police said, was driven by Thomas Mercer, Ten Mile Point. A C. & C. ambulance took Mr. Wilson to the Jubilee Hospital where he was treated by Dr. E. L. McNiven.

MEETS HUSBAND'S BUDDY OF LAST WAR

Mrs. Ella Surphlis, formerly of Wellington Avenue, who is now living in Vancouver, heard the other day for the first time details of her husband's death in the last war.

She was being landed a letter by the postman when he remarked: "It's been a long time since I heard that name. I had a buddy in France by the name of Surphlis."

Mrs. Surphlis asked if "the buddy's name was Charles. It was. Further conversation disclosed the postman was with Charles Surphlis the night Surphlis was killed in France in 1916.

The postman had photographs at home of his long dead "buddy" and later he gave them to Mrs. Surphlis, who is the mother of Dick Surphlis, well-known Victoria athlete, now in New York with the Rogers hockey team.

Mrs. Surphlis wrote about the meeting to her brother, Albert Cullin, a Seattle photographer, and a Seattle newspaperman put the story to the wire to Victoria. Mrs. Surphlis is a daughter of the late William Cullin, for many years King's Printer. Mrs. P. G. Cudlip of Shawnigan Lake, is her sister.

CAMERA CLUB

The first annual meeting of the British Columbia Civil Service Camera Club was held Wednesday evening in the Burdett Street clubrooms. George J. Alexander, president, reviewed the work and progress of the club throughout the year, and R. L. Colby, secretary-treasurer, submitted a highly encouraging report of an active membership of 29 and club finances adequate for the coming year's program. George Armstrong, program chairman, submitted suggestions for expansion of club activities to provide more opportunity for beginning amateurs to take part in monthly print contests by setting up a class separate from that of the more advanced members.

Two kodachrome movie subjects were shown in addition to an interesting comparison of Dufay-color and Kodachrome stills. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, December 4. Contest prints illustrating the subject, "Autumn Scene," will be judged.

Old Locations For German Guns

Restoration of German souvenir guns to the Causeway and Oak Bay Junction sites will be recommended by Alderman B. J. Gadsden to the parks committee. Restitution of the pieces to places of public exhibition was ordered by the City Council Tuesday, but selection of sites was left to the committee.

Today Alderman Gadsden and W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, toured the city inspecting locations, and reached the conclusion the pieces would be best returned to their original positions. When they are set up, however, pains will be taken to see they are pointed correctly, some artillerymen having taken exception to the way the Oak Bay Junction piece formerly faced the city.

The tour also included an inspection of Beacon Hill Park, where careless drivers have cut trails into the broom, near the lookout, and destroyed grass in other sections of the park. Action will be taken to curb that practice, Alderman Gadsden stated.

Possibility that two old muzzle-loading field pieces would be set up in the park was also announced by the alderman, who said the committee hoped to see the waterfront barricade at Beacon Hill renewed by the Public Works group.

Beautiful B.C. Is Lovely Film

"Beautiful British Columbia," a travelogue in sound and color, portraying the natural grandeur and myriad attractions of this province in gorgeous natural color, was previewed this morning at the Capitol Theatre by provincial and city officials and representatives of the transportation and the hotel industry.

Produced for the British Columbia government travel bureau of the Department of Trade and Industry by Leon C. Shelly of Vancouver Motion Pictures Ltd., the film will not be released until December 20. Through the Columbia Pictures Corporation it will then be shown in at least 5,000 motion picture theatres in the British Empire, United States and Canada.

The travelogue, lasting approximately 10 minutes, first takes its audience to Vancouver Island, showing the killed Scottish band marching before the Parliament Buildings in Victoria, following with a beautiful panoramic view of the harbor, Butchart Gardens, several Victoria homes, in full midsummer color, are shown, and from the seventh tee at the Oak Bay golf links one of the Princess ships is passing. Island sports are featured in several excellent shots of the fishing at Campbell River and Cowichan.

The film then moves to Vancouver and into the beautiful Okanagan Valley in apple blossom time, and the Kootenays. It travels through the historic mills and sites of the colorful Cariboo along the Big Bend Highway and records the breathtaking magnificence of the Rockies and Emerald Lake.

The coastal trip to Prince Rupert is shown and the audience introduced to Prince George, "entrance to British Columbia's Caspian region, paradise of big game hunters."

"British Columbia is a land of contrasts, wild natural beauty competing with the grandeur of industrial cities, but it is all beautiful, beckoning, waiting to be explored," the commentator concludes.

Throughout the entire film runs an appropriate musical background especially scored for the unfolding scenes. Those attending were members of the provincial Legislature, Mayor McGavin and members of the City Council, members of the Junior and Senior Chamber of Commerce, directors and members of the Vancouver Island Publicity Bureau, Reeve R. R. Taylor, Reeve A. G. Lambbrick, Reeve Alexander Lockley, C. F. Earle, C.N.R. representative; R. J. Burland and Capt. R. W. McMurray, C.P.R. representative; Walter Miles, Union Steamships representative, and members of the Vancouver and Victoria press.

Another civic entertainment committee dance for the members of the services will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium at 8.30 tomorrow evening. Only ticket-holders will be admitted. Tickets for members of the services and their escorts can be obtained from Ald. W. H. Davies, 1008 Broad Street, or the mayor's secretary at the City Hall. Miss Mable Irvine's orchestra will provide the music for this dance which will include a few of the old-time dances.

A. E. HORNER SEEKS SAANICH SEAT

A. E. Horner, a gardener of Kieber Avenue, Mount Tolmie, today announced he would seek a seat on the Saanich municipal council for Ward 1 in the impending municipal elections.

Mr. Horner served three years on the council before and three years on the school board. Chairman of the British Columbia Hothouse-Tomato-Marketing Board in 1937 and 1938, Mr. Horner said in announcing his candidature today that there was room for adjustments in the assessments of the municipality. There should be equitable assessments throughout Saanich, he said. Election talk in Saanich indicates that Joseph Leonard Hobbs, 1040 Tolmie Avenue, is contesting for Brackman-Ker Milling Co.

Opposes New Election Lists

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader, gave notice before the Special Elections Act committee of the Legislature this morning that he will move to strike out a provision that new voters' lists be prepared before general elections in Victoria and Vancouver ridings.

"It requires a terrific expenditure to prepare these lists. The public is expecting us to cut government costs and here is a place we can do it," he said. P. Walker, deputy provincial secretary, said there were about 175,000 names to put on the lists in Vancouver. The enumerators get 10 cents a name.

J. Howard Forester, Liberal, Burrard, pointed out that there was a great deal of shifting about in the city ridings and the only way to get proper lists was to prepare a new one for each election.

"We've got on without this ever since Confederation," said Mr. Maitland. "We are in a drastic situation now and I don't see any reason why it should be introduced at this stage."

E. T. Kenney, Liberal, Skeena, pointed out the whole question of preparing new lists had been argued last year and decided. He saw no reason to upset it this year.

R. W. Bruhn, Conservative, Salmon Arm, advocated a plan by which voters could be placed on the list at the Court of Revision. The act now provides that after enumerators have taken the names the lists are posted for five days. In this period people can get their names on, but not at the Court of Revision.

The committee this morning dealt with various routine amendments to the act which are designed to facilitate the administration of elections.

The question of a soldier's absentee vote was left over for consideration next week. Chairman W. T. Straith pointed out many difficulties in connection with such a vote must be ironed out.

Under a draft for the absentee vote placed before the committee the government would be given the necessary authority to arrange for taking the ballots according to the circumstances that may prevail at the time of the election.

Deer, Squirrels Help War Effort

Wild game, which abounds in British Columbia, is playing its part in the war effort. Things which have been thrown away or disregarded are now being used to help the fighting forces.

In the agricultural committee of the Legislature this morning, J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, produced a number of deerskins which have been tanned for leather.

This is an effort arranged by farmers institutes and women's institutes. Hunters after skinning their deer turn the skins over to the institutes, who have them tanned. The leather is good for insoles, vest linings, uniforms and similar purposes.

The deerskins shown today all came from Vancouver Island.

Another animal doing its part in the war is the little squirrel.

Squirrel skins by the thousands are being shipped out of the Cariboo and Omineca districts, according to Mark M. Connelly, Liberal member for Omineca. They are good for fur lining for aviators' suits and a number of other uses.

Mr. Connelly is interested in reducing from 2 cents to 1 cent the royalty charged on the squirrels.

In the past squirrel skins have been worth about 5 cents apiece, but the war needs has raised the price to 15 cents. Trappers and hunters find it a lucrative trade.

Father Wood Leaves Church for Navy

Rev. Father J. B. Jullion of Prince Albert has been appointed pastor of Queen of Peace Church at Esquimalt, succeeding Rev. Father A. B. Wood, who has become full-time chaplain to the navy. It was announced this morning by Bishop John C. Cody.

Father Jullion, who will take over his new duties December 1, has been a missionary for 35 years in the scattered diocese of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. He will remain here for the duration of the war, after which Father Wood may again take over the church, which was built largely through his efforts.

Father Wood will take up residence in Esquimalt and will give his full time to his naval work, playing running for Ward 3 seat on the council. Mr. Hobbs, however, could not be reached to confirm this today. He is manager of Brackman-Ker Milling Co.

Today the Young Folks Want a Piano

WHEREVER you go there is a radio, but today the tide of popular favor is to the home where there is a piano. Young people want to play music of their own inventing, they want to discard mechanical music and play the melodies they want when they want them.

The new, small, space-saving pianos by Heintzman & Co., Nordheimer, Wurliizer, Lemaire, offer an unsurpassed choice of the latest designs at prices from as low as $250, on terms to suit your convenience.

Most Stars Named From Greek Legend

Mythological personages, animals and objects of the beautiful and romantic Greek legends inspired the early Greeks, the pioneers of astronomy, in naming all the early groups of stars, members of the Victoria centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada were told last night by Mrs. Diana Watts at a meeting of the society at the Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Watts' topic was "The Romance of the Stars."

"It is to these Greeks, who, as far back as 800 B.C. showed interest in the skies, that we owe all the romance of astronomy," Mrs. Watts said.

It was also shown that many of these constellations take the form of the imaginary figures in these Greek legends. Particularly clear is Orion, which, in the opinion of the speaker, is the most magnificent constellation in the heavens. It is quite easy to see the form of the hunter, with his brilliant belt from which hangs his hunting knife.

Mrs. Watts' address was illustrated with lantern slides operated by Dr. William Petrie.

Reports on local astronomers' observations on the recent passage of Mercury over the sun were given by Boyd Bryden, Dr. K. O. Wright and Dr. Petrie. It was announced by Miss C. Hailstone, librarian, that a copy of Sir James Jeans' "Stars in Their Courses" from the library of the late Dr. W. E. Harper has been added to the society's collection. Robert Peters, president, was in the chair.

The next meeting of the Victoria centre will take the form of the annual meeting, and will be held at Spencer's dining room on December 13.

Ex-University Chief Coming Here to Live

Dr. Bruce Taylor, former principal of Queen's University at Kingston, and Mrs. Taylor, are on their way to Victoria and will probably take up residence here.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor arrived in Toronto this week and told of a 20-day flight from the south of France to London on a small collier jammed with 900 refugees. They left France when Italy entered the war.

Off the coast of Spain their ship was attacked by an Italian submarine, which just missed them with two torpedoes.

Mrs. Taylor was standing beside the ship's gunner when he answered fire. He scored a hit and, turning to Mrs. Taylor said, "that Italian won't eat any more spaghetti."

Church of Our Lord Has New Rector

Coming here from Medstead, Saskatchewan, Rev. Canon E. V. Bird has been appointed rector of the Church of Our Lord and will take charge of services at the Humboldt Street church on Sunday.

A native of Wokington, England, Canon Bird has resided in Canada for the past 33 years and has had wide experience in Anglican church work in the province of Saskatchewan.

The new incumbent of the local Free Church of England will retain his status as an Anglican clergyman. It was only recently that the

WANGER FEATURE
 COMES TO OAK BAY

An imposing line-up of stellar names head the cast of Walter Wanger's "Slightly Honorable," streamlined, modern-day story introduced to screen-goers at the Oak Bay Theatre today. A vivid new personality, Ruth Terry, is introduced. Based on a true but composite picture of what goes on behind the scenes in some of our largest cities, "Slightly Honorable" was adapted for the screen from the best-selling novel by F. G. Fresnell.

PLAZA THEATRE
 "Kit Carson," now showing at the Plaza Theatre, unfolds some of the spectacular episodes in the life of the great adventurer who joined forces with John C. Fremont to survey and map the shortest overland route to California, in the days when travel often meant fierce attacks from the Indians.

Argentine Nights
 Coming to Dominion

Although the Andrews Sisters, Patty, Maxene and LaVerne, won international fame as a swing song trio, their first Hollywood assignment called for them to master a new dance.

Making their film debut as co-stars with the Ritz Brothers in "Argentine Nights," Universal musical farce coming tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre, the girls had to display unusual terpsichorean skill.

The picture blends comedy, music and romantic scenes.

'Texas Stagecoach'
 Screened at Rio

Charles Starrett is starred and Iris Meredith is his leading lady in Columbia's thrilling outdoor drama, "Texas Stagecoach," opening at the Rio Theatre today. The Sons of the Pioneers supply a tuneful background to the exciting story of rival stage lines and family feuds settled with guns and fists in the lawless manner of the Old West. Dick Curtis, Edward LeSaint, Don Beddoe and Kenneth MacDonald head the supporting cast, which was directed by Joseph H. Lewis.

'The Mortal Storm'
 On Cadet Bill

The longest continuous "traveling shot" ever filmed is on view in "The Mortal Storm," showing at the Cadet Theatre for an engagement of three days.

"The Mortal Storm," based on the thrilling novel by Phyllis Bottome, features a cast headed by Margaret Sullivan, James Stewart, Robert Young, and Frank Morgan. The picture was directed by Frank Borzage, with the supporting cast featuring Robert Stack, Bonita Granville, Irene Rich, William T. Orr, Maria Ouspenskaya and Gene Reynolds.

Seattle Symphony
 Heard Here Nov. 28

Colorful music, representing the best in many nationalities and painting pictures of both old and new worlds, will be presented for the pleasure of Victorians when the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, plays November 28 at Royal Victoria Theatre.

The famous conductor will lead his talented musicians, representing the best of the musical growth in the Pacific northwest, in compositions by such masters as Beethoven and Liszt, and in several tone poems.

The complete program will be as follows:
 1—Overture, "Leonore No. 3" (Ludwig Van Beethoven) (1779-1826).
 2—Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, Opus 65 (Antonin Dvorak), from the "New World." 1, Adagio, Allegro molto; 2, Largo; 3, Scherzo, Molto vivace; 4, Finale, Allegro con fuoco.
 3—Two poems, "Winter" and "Spring" (Ernest Bloch). First performance in Victoria.
 4—Symphonic Poem No. 3, "Les Preludes" (Franz Liszt) (1811-1886).

Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland in a scene from "Strike Up the Band," now being shown at the Capitol Theatre.

World Guides May Move Headquarters

OTTAWA (CP)—Its work affected to some extent by the conflict in Europe, the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, whose headquarters are normally in London, has taken measures for the development of its western hemisphere branch so that its work can be carried on with as little interference as possible.

This was the object of the recent visit of Mrs. A. Leigh-White to Canada. Mrs. Leigh-White is the director of the World Association at its London headquarters.

The western hemisphere committee includes representatives from Canada, the United States, Mexico and South America. Mrs. H. D. Warren of Toronto, Chief Commissioner of Girl Guides in Canada, and Mrs. John Corbett of Kingston, Ont., are the Canadian representatives.

The Association of American Girl Scouts—as the Guides are called in the United States—offered free office space and equipment in their New York headquarters.

Meeting Guide officials in several Canadian cities before returning to New York, Mrs. Leigh-White described the work of the World Association which in peace time held biennial meetings in European countries.

Mrs. Leigh-White said that in London refugee Guides have been welcomed from many of the German-occupied countries. Hostels and a social club have been opened for them and a number of international companies have been formed. Occasionally letters are received from Guides in the occupied countries. Efforts are made to carry on "spiritually," though it is impossible to make any outward manifestation of their work.

Girl Guide branches in the various countries contribute to the upkeep of the World Association in proportion to the size of its Guide population. This year, in view of the war, Finland was not asked to pay her contribution and, said Mrs. Leigh-White, an indignant letter was received from the Finnish national secretary asking why the request was not made. They were ready and anxious to pay.

The value of developing Guiding in South America, where the social and family life has made it difficult for girls to belong to such organizations, is considered opportune at this time by the London director.

"Every effort is necessary to train the youth to remember they have brother Scouts and sister Guides in other countries and thus bonds of understanding and interest are developed," she said.

At the present time Canada and the United States can take the leadership in the development of Guiding in the whole western hemisphere, Mrs. Leigh-White told representatives here.

East-west Game
 Runs Into Snag

OTTAWA (CP)—As far as Ottawa Rough Riders are concerned, there will be no east-west football final this season unless the game is arranged by the Canadian Rugby Union.

Jim McCaffrey, business manager of the club, made this point clear today. "If we win the eastern title, we will play the west only if such a game is sponsored by the C.R.U.," he said.

He said Riders would have no part in the final proposed by Fred Hamilton, president of the Sports League. Hamilton is trying to arrange a Dominion final to be played with or without the sanction of the governing body of rugby, the C.R.U.

"I don't care if such a game gets 10 sanctions from the C.R.U.," he said. "We'll only play the west if the game is arranged by the C.R.U.—and that's definite."

As for the eastern final, McCaffrey said the club would be agreeable to play the Ontario union winner, either a sudden-death game or a home-and-home series.

Ruling Awaited
 VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia Court of Appeal yesterday reserved decision on an appeal of Sam Levi, manufacturer, and his daughter Dora, of Victoria, from a judgment of Mr. Justice Denis Murphy, dismissing their action to recover $208,812 damages from A. R. MacDougall, Vancouver barrister, and A. B. Trites, financier.

The claim arose out of the acquiring of Pacific Coast Distillers Limited in a mortgage foreclosure suit.

 3—Two poems, "Winter" and "Spring" (Ernest Bloch). First performance in Victoria.
 4—Symphonic Poem No. 3, "Les Preludes" (Franz Liszt) (1811-1886).

Argentine Nights
 Coming to Dominion

Although the Andrews Sisters, Patty, Maxene and LaVerne, won international fame as a swing song trio, their first Hollywood assignment called for them to master a new dance.

Making their film debut as co-stars with the Ritz Brothers in "Argentine Nights," Universal musical farce coming tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre, the girls had to display unusual terpsichorean skill.

The picture blends comedy, music and romantic scenes.

'Texas Stagecoach'
 Screened at Rio

Charles Starrett is starred and Iris Meredith is his leading lady in Columbia's thrilling outdoor drama, "Texas Stagecoach," opening at the Rio Theatre today. The Sons of the Pioneers supply a tuneful background to the exciting story of rival stage lines and family feuds settled with guns and fists in the lawless manner of the Old West. Dick Curtis, Edward LeSaint, Don Beddoe and Kenneth MacDonald head the supporting cast, which was directed by Joseph H. Lewis.

'The Mortal Storm'
 On Cadet Bill

The longest continuous "traveling shot" ever filmed is on view in "The Mortal Storm," showing at the Cadet Theatre for an engagement of three days.

"The Mortal Storm," based on the thrilling novel by Phyllis Bottome, features a cast headed by Margaret Sullivan, James Stewart, Robert Young, and Frank Morgan. The picture was directed by Frank Borzage, with the supporting cast featuring Robert Stack, Bonita Granville, Irene Rich, William T. Orr, Maria Ouspenskaya and Gene Reynolds.

Seattle Symphony
 Heard Here Nov. 28

Colorful music, representing the best in many nationalities and painting pictures of both old and new worlds, will be presented for the pleasure of Victorians when the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, plays November 28 at Royal Victoria Theatre.

The famous conductor will lead his talented musicians, representing the best of the musical growth in the Pacific northwest, in compositions by such masters as Beethoven and Liszt, and in several tone poems.

The complete program will be as follows:
 1—Overture, "Leonore No. 3" (Ludwig Van Beethoven) (1779-1826).
 2—Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, Opus 65 (Antonin Dvorak), from the "New World." 1, Adagio, Allegro molto; 2, Largo; 3, Scherzo, Molto vivace; 4, Finale, Allegro con fuoco.
 3—Two poems, "Winter" and "Spring" (Ernest Bloch). First performance in Victoria.
 4—Symphonic Poem No. 3, "Les Preludes" (Franz Liszt) (1811-1886).

Aztecs Had Large Flocks of Turkeys

Most barnyard fowls were brought to this continent from Asia. There was not a hen of the barnyard type in either North or South America when white men first crossed the Atlantic.

Turkeys were common, however. Thousands of them were to be found in forests from Canada down to Central America.

Wild turkeys exist to this day in various parts of Canada and the United States, and in a few sections are fairly common.

Mexico and Central America, however, are the places where wild turkeys are found in greatest number. Central America has a special kind of wild turkey; it has a bright coat of green, black and yellow feathers, and is red and blue about the head and neck.

Mexico's wild turkeys live both in mountains and in valleys. They make their nests on the ground, in shallow holes lined with leaves.

Aztec boy attending a flock of turkeys.

The turkey hen lays from eight to 20 eggs in her nest. Like baby chicks, the baby wild turkeys are able to walk quickly after they hatch from the eggs. In company with their mother, they wander about in search of food. In two weeks they are able to fly.

When Spaniards entered Mexico more than 400 years ago, they saw turkeys for the first time. They never had seen such birds in Spain, and people in other parts of Europe had not seen them.

Wild turkeys were not the only kind which the Spaniards saw. There were many tame ones as well. Flocks of turkeys were kept by the Aztec Indians.

One reason the Aztecs kept these fowls was to make use of their feathers. The feathers were valued for decoration.

Some idea of the many turkeys in Mexico may be gained from an entry in an old Aztec account book. In this record we find that 8,000 turkeys had been obtained for the royal palace in Mexico City.

After Mexico was conquered, the Spaniards sent a number of tame turkeys to Spain. That seems to have been the start of turkey-raising by farmers in Europe. Since then, turkeys have become barnyard fowls on thousands of farms in Europe as well as in the New World.

Turkeys on farms in our land are descended from those the Aztecs kept in flocks.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22

Good and adverse planetary influences are active today, but benefic aspects appear to dominate.

Women are under the most stimulating and promising planetary direction today. It is especially favorable to foresight which enables wise decisions. It is a fortunate away for love affairs. Engagements or weddings are under a planetary direction presaging progress and good fortune. This is a lucky date for social entertainments and for theatrical events. A new play is to make a lasting hit.

An economic war is forecast and a snarl in international finance, but for the sound organization, mercantile or manufacturing, the future is bright.

Danger is foretold that a new aristocracy may develop from the officers who are commissioned in the army, navy, and aviation service. As the outlook is for continued wearing of uniforms, many men will be long withdrawn from business and the various professions.

Britain's courageous defence against invasion will last until some sort of honorable truce or armistice is arranged. It is foretold. Changes in the government are forecast and there will be deaths among the statesmen of the Empire.

Persons whose birthday it is have the augury of a year of good fortune. There may be journeys of business and pleasure.

Children born on this day will be vigorous, energetic and courageous. These subjects of the Archer know how to hit the bull's-eye of success.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—What do you think of a woman who tells her son that she will end her life if he marries the girl he loves? Both he and his fiancée are in their late twenties. The man supports his parents and they live in his home. The father is an able-bodied man but doesn't like to work at long intervals. The man feels that he cannot turn them out of house and home. The girl refuses to live with his parents. What is the answer?

A FRIEND OF BOTH.

Answer: I think the answer is perfectly simple. The man should refuse to let his selfish parents terrorize him into sacrificing his life's happiness to them.

The mother's threat to commit suicide is just an act she puts on to keep her son's pay envelope for her exclusive use and benefit. She won't do it. All he will have to do will be just to call her bluff and she will be around just as chipper as you please. Also, the father sits down on the do-nothing stool because it is easier to work his son than it is to work at a job.

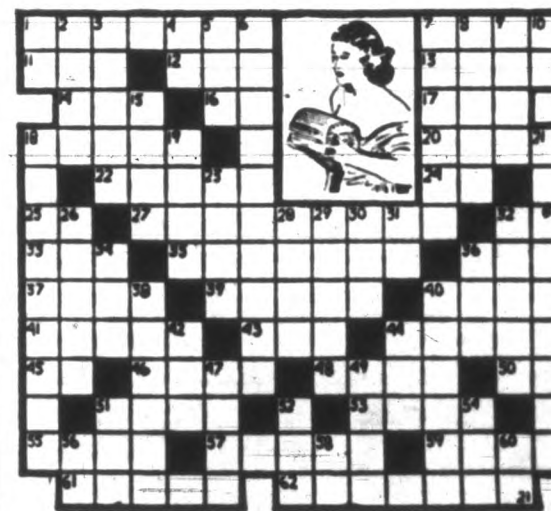

I think the girl is entirely right in refusing to go to live with two greedy, gasping old people who would make her life a torment if she did.

And she is also right in calling for a showdown from the man to whom she is engaged and to find out whether he considers his parents' wishes more important than her happiness. If he is going to consider them before her, she should know it and not waste any more time upon him.

Of course, the man should help his parents, but he should get them a small house or apartment in which to live and fix a definite allowance he would give them for their support. That would force father to go to work, which would be good for his health and his morals and his self-respect.

A child's duty does not demand that he should support in idleness a man who is able to support himself, even if that man is his own father.

CAN'T FIND ROOM, LIVES IN HOSPITAL

OTTAWA (CP)—It's so hard to find a place to live in wartime Ottawa that one newcomer who isn't sick is living in a hospital.

He is Andy Clarke, former Toronto newspaperman now attached to the department of public information. "They fixed up a room and it's a pretty good room, too," he explained today.

The Y.M.C.A. gymnasium has been turned into a dormitory to help handle the big population increase caused by expansion of most government departments during the past year.

Latest move to help solve the situation was made by the Ottawa Property Owners' Association. It asked owners of large private homes to take in paying guests and more than 40 have expressed willingness to help.

Houses and apartments that are built are rented before they're even completed.

RAINMAKER CLAIMS SUCCESS

PLANT CITY, Fla. (AP)—Miss Lillie Stoute, who claims to be able to bring rainfall by sitting near a body of water, threw two strikes at south Florida's drought from her bleacher seat beside Lake Walden and most of the Plant City area parked up under a generous shower.

It wasn't a full-blown rain, but the dark rolling clouds opened enough to encourage the imperiled strawberry growers, and to allow Miss Lillie to strengthen her claim as a rainmaker.

"It's the beginning," said the 68-year-old Mississippian, who came here at the request of strawberry growers to end a drought.

Yesterday's shower came after Miss Lillie had completed 48 hours of lakeside sitting.

Expand India Army

LONDON (CP)—India has 60,000 troops serving overseas and is "rapidly expanding" its army to 500,000 men "trained, equipped and mechanized" on a modern scale, the House of Commons was told yesterday by L. S. Amery, secretary of state for India.

In a statement on India's war effort, he said "the title of Britain is leading to the Battle of the Empire."

Research scientists have shown that it is practical to produce vaccine protecting against European typhus, on a large scale.

Woodhouse to Seek Reeveship

W. Len Woodhouse, former member of the council, announced last night he would seek the reeveship of Oak Bay in the December 14 elections.

He announced his intention to run for the office following Councilor William Ellis' withdrawal.

W. L. WOODHOUSE

As a candidate for the chief magistrate's post yesterday, Mr. Ellis was forced to withdraw owing to a technicality in the sale and purchase of property.

It is believed that Councilor Ellis' withdrawal prompted Mr. Woodhouse to seek the reeveship. It has been an Oak Bay custom to elect the governing body by acclamation. There has not been a reeves' contest in 15 years.

If Mr. Woodhouse is elected he will be the youngest reeve to hold office in many years in Oak Bay.

Mr. Woodhouse served in the capacity of councillor for four years in Oak Bay, from 1935 to 1939 and for two years was chairman of the municipality's police commission.

Mail to England Should Go Soon

Christmas parcels to England should be mailed as soon as possible to insure delivery before December 25, Postmaster George Gardiner advises.

Ordinary mail to Great Britain has been much higher than last year due to the war, he said. Victorians were mailing foodstuffs, such as sugar, butter and tea, to relatives in England and other parts of the British Isles, in large quantities.

Christmas mail should be attended to immediately because of the large mails which were going across the Atlantic already.

Ickes Identifies Subversive Groups

NEW YORK (AP)—"Roughly speaking, the United States harbors four large groups that are subversive to our institutions and openly hostile to democracy itself," says Harold Ickes.

In an address at Town Hall, the Secretary of the Interior stated that "first, there are the native Fascist groups such as the Silver Shirts, the Knights of the White Camellia, certain Ku Klux Klans, the Christian Front, etc."

"While in general these groups, terrible as it is to say it, are composed of native-born Americans, they may also include American citizens of foreign birth such as Father Coughlin," Mr. Ickes continued. "In the ranks of the native Fascists one may even discover such an individual as Col. Lindbergh, a busy aviator who would surrender voluntarily his sword even before it is demanded."

HELLENIC UNIT SURE OF VICTORY

With patriotic shouting echoing throughout the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium yesterday afternoon, members of the Hellenic War Relief Society gathered to donate $1,443 to the cause of their country.

Officers and crewmen of three Greek vessels in port emphasized the necessity of assisting war victims in their country's struggle against the Fascist and Nazi enemies. They are confident of ultimate and sweeping victory.

Plans for a procession of Greek sailors through the city, co-operation with other war relief organizations, and a dance for the visiting Greeks were outlined by the chairman, Stylianos Moraitis. He announced that complete figures on the amount collected for war victims would be available on Saturday.

OUTPUT OF COAL SLIGHTLY HIGHER

British Columbia collieries produced a total of 131,820 tons of coal during October compared with 130,715 a year ago, according to the monthly report of the chief inspector of mines.

October output of collieries in the four mining districts with last year's production in brackets: Vancouver Island 64,750 tons (66,184); East Kootenay 55,743 tons (44,629); Nicola-Princeton 10,728 tons (19,414); Northern District 599 tons (488).

Michel Colliery produced 6,329 tons of coke.

HINDU CHAMPION SURE OF VICTORY

Dr. D. P. Pandia, member of the Nationalist Congress of India, who for more than a year has been in Canada and the United States championing the legal rights of Hindu residents, is confident that the British Commonwealth of Nations will win the war because they are "fighting for the principle of democracy and human rights."

He has just returned to Victoria from Washington, D.C., and yesterday had a conference with Premier Pattullo on the status of Hindus in British Columbia.

Negotiations were successfully conducted by Dr. Pandia with the Dominion government last year regarding 225 Hindus who had entered Canada years ago and were threatened with deportation proceedings on account of irregular entry. As a result of these representations the deportation proceedings were dropped and the Hindus allowed to remain as an act of grace.

Although permitted to stay in the country, these East Indians are without legal status, and Dr. Pandia is now negotiating with both federal and provincial governments with a view to gaining for them full legal rights.

"I feel confident that justice will be done to the small Hindu minority in this country," he said. "It would be an appreciable factor in the harmony of Indian-Canadian relations."

Britannia Fragments Entertain Services

A large number of sailors, soldiers and airmen, with their girl friends, last night enjoyed a splendid concert by the Britannia Fragments at the Knights of Columbus war services hut at Queen of Peace Church, Esquimalt.

Anthony Greet, hut secretary, presided and announced the various numbers and at the conclusion thanked the entertainers for providing a most enjoyable evening.

There were songs and recitations and dances on the program, which was humorous in spots and delighted the audience, who gave unstinted applause.

Taking part were Jim Matheson, Ethel Barker, Dorothy Finn, Alf Adams, Bill Farmer, Eva Milne, Douglas Park, Jack Shrimpton, Jack Holyoak and

George Todd. W. Fynn was electrician and Percy Shrimpton stage manager.

Following the program the guests enjoyed refreshments and a social hour.
